428 estate, and in that event the receiver shall succeed to and may 429 enforce the rights of the purchaser, lienor or obligee.

(2) (a) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee under Section 83-24-55.

(b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

(c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by which a legal lien could be created.

(d) Any transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

(e) The provisions of this subsection apply whether or

448 (3) Any transaction of the insurer with a reinsurer shall be 449 deemed fraudulent and may be voided by the receiver under

No. 2227 ~ • OFFICIAL ~ 23/SS26/R522 PAGE 18 (scm\tb) 453 reinsurer is released from any part of its duty to pay the 454 originally specified share of losses that had occurred prior to 455 the time of the transactions, unless the reinsurer gives a present 456 fair equivalent value for the release; and

(b) Any part of the transaction took place within one
(1) year prior to the date of filing of the petition through which the receivership was commenced.

460 (4) Every person receiving any property from the insurer or 461 any benefit thereof which is a fraudulent transfer under 462 subsection (1) shall be personally liable therefor and shall be 463 bound to account to the liquidator.

464 (5) Notwithstanding this section and any other provision of 465 this title, a receiver shall not avoid any transfer of, or any 466 obligation to transfer, money or any other property arising under or in connection with a federal home loan bank security agreement 467 468 or any pledge agreement, security agreement, collateral agreement, 469 guarantee agreement, or other similar arrangement or credit 470 enhancement relating to a security agreement to which a federal 471 home loan bank is a party. However, a transfer may be avoided 472 under this section if it was made with the actual intent to 473 hinder, delay, or defraud either existing or future creditors. SECTION 6. Section 83-24-55, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 474 475 amended as follows: 476 83-24-55. (1) (a) A preference is a transfer of any of the

If a 483 liquidation order is entered while the insurer is already subject 484 to a rehabilitation order, then such transfers shall be deemed 485 preferences if made or suffered within one (1) year before the 486 filing of the successful petition for rehabilitation, or within 487 two (2) years before the filing of the successful petition for 488 liquidation, whichever time is shorter.

489 (b) Any preference may be voided by the liquidator if:
490 (i) The insurer was insolvent at the time of the 491 transfer; or

492 (ii) The transfer was made within four (4) months493 before the filing of the petition; or

(iii) The creditor receiving it or to be benefited thereby or his agent acting with reference thereto had, at the time when the transfer was made, reasonable cause to believe that the insurer was insolvent or was about to become insolvent; or

(iv) The creditor receiving it was an officer, or any employee or attorney or other person who was in fact in a position of comparable influence in the insurer to an officer whether or not he held such position, or any shareholder holding, directly or indirectly, more than five percent (5%) of any class

503 of any equity security issued by the insurer, or any other person, 504 firm, corporation, association, or aggregation of persons with 505 whom the insurer did not deal at arm's length.

506 When the preference is voidable, the liquidator may (C) 507 recover the property or, if it has been converted, its value from 508 any person who has received or converted the property; except 509 where a bona fide purchaser or lienor has given less than fair 510 equivalent value, he shall have a lien upon the property to the 511 extent of the consideration actually given by him. If a preference by way of lien or security title is voidable, the court 512 513 may on due notice order the lien or title to be preserved for the 514 benefit of the estate and the lien or title shall pass to the 515 liquidator.

(2) (a) A transfer of property other than real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings on a simple contract could become superior to the rights of the transferee.

(b) A transfer of real property shall be deemed to be made or suffered when it becomes so far perfected that no subsequent bona fide purchaser from the insurer could obtain rights superior to the rights of the transferee.

525 (c) A transfer which creates an equitable lien shall 526 not be deemed to be perfected if there are available means by 527 which a legal lien could be created.

S. B. No. 2227 ~ OFFICIAL ~ 23/SS26/R522 PAGE 21 (scm\tb) (d) A transfer not perfected prior to the filing of a petition for liquidation shall be deemed to be made immediately before the filing of the successful petition.

531 (e) The provisions of this subsection apply whether or 532 not there are or were creditors who might have obtained liens or 533 persons who might have become bona fide purchasers.

534 A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings (3) (a) 535 upon a simple contract is one arising in the ordinary course of 536 such proceedings upon the entry or docketing of a judgment or decree, or upon attachment, garnishment, execution, or like 537 538 process, whether before, upon, or after judgment or decree and 539 whether before or upon levy. It does not include liens which 540 under applicable law are given a special priority over other liens which are prior in time. 541

542 A lien obtainable by legal or equitable proceedings (b) 543 could become superior to the rights of a transferee, or a 544 purchaser could obtain rights superior to the rights of a transferee within the meaning of subsection (2), if such 545 546 consequences would follow only from the lien or purchase itself, 547 or from the lien or purchase followed by any step wholly within 548 the control of the respective lienholder or purchaser, with or 549 without the aid of ministerial action by public officials. Such a 550 lien could not, however, become superior and such a purchase could 551 not create superior rights for the purpose of subsection (2) through any acts subsequent to the obtaining of such a lien or 552

556 A transfer of property for or on account of a new and (4)557 contemporaneous consideration which is deemed under subsection (2) 558 to be made or suffered after the transfer because of delay in 559 perfecting it does not thereby become a transfer for or on account 560 of an antecedent debt if any acts required by the applicable law 561 to be performed in order to perfect the transfer as against liens or bona fide purchasers' rights are performed within twenty-one 562 563 (21) days or any period expressly allowed by the law, whichever is less. A transfer to secure a future loan, if such a loan is 564 565 actually made, or a transfer which becomes security for a future 566 loan, shall have the same effect as a transfer for or on account 567 of a new and contemporaneous consideration.

(5) If any lien deemed voidable under subsection (1)(b) has been dissolved by the furnishing of a bond or other obligation, the surety on which has been indemnified directly or indirectly by the transfer of or the creation of a lien upon any property of an insurer before the filing of a petition under this chapter which results in a liquidation order, the indemnifying transfer or lien shall also be deemed voidable.

575 (6) The property affected by any lien deemed voidable under 576 subsections (1) and (5) shall be discharged from such lien, and 577 that property and any of the indemnifying property transferred to

583 (7)The court shall have summary jurisdiction of any 584 proceeding by the liquidator to hear and determine the rights of 585 any parties under this section. Reasonable notice of any hearing 586 in the proceeding shall be given to all parties in interest, 587 including the obligee of a releasing bond or other like 588 obligation. 598 (8) The liability of the surety under a releasing bond or 599 other like obligation shall be discharged to the extent of the 600 value of the indemnifying property recovered or the indemnifying 601 lien nullified and voided by the liquidator, or where the property

610 If an insurer shall, directly or indirectly, within (10)four (4) months before the filing of a successful petition for 611 612 liquidation under this chapter, or at any time in contemplation of 613 a proceeding to liquidate it, pay money or transfer property to an 614 attorney-at-law for services rendered or to be rendered, the 615 transactions may be examined by the court on its own motion or 616 shall be examined by the court on petition of the liquidator and 617 shall be held valid only to the extent of a reasonable amount to 618 be determined by the court, and the excess may be recovered by the liquidator for the benefits of the estate. If the attorney is in 619 620 a position of influence with the insurer or an affiliate thereof, 621 payment of any money or the transfer of any property to the 622 attorney-at-law for services rendered or to be rendered shall be 623 governed by the provision of subsection (1) (b) (iv).
