19 municipality shall appoint three (3) directors and the board of 20 supervisors of the county in which said municipality lies shall appoint two (2) directors. However, should the assessed valuation 21 22 of land and property and improvements in said district outside the 23 municipality, according to the last preceding tax assessment roll 24 for county and state taxes, exceed said assessment for the land and property and improvements of the district lying within the 25 26 municipality, the board of supervisors of the county in which said 27 district lies shall appoint three (3) directors and said 28 municipality shall appoint two (2) directors.

29 (C) In the event the proposed flood and drainage 30 control district is comprised of lands lying, in whole or in part, 31 in one or more municipalities which are in existence at the time 32 of the creation of such district, and in one or more counties and 33 not falling within the description of paragraph (a) or (b) above, 34 each such municipality shall appoint one (1) director and the 35 board of supervisors of each county in which part of the lands of the proposed district lie shall appoint one (1) director. If a 36 37 district is enlarged under Section 51-35-315(w), each municipality 38 within the enlarged district with a population above one hundred 39 thousand (100,000), according to the most recent decennial census, 40 shall have two (2) additional directors, who shall be the 41 emergency manager for such municipality and the emergency manager 42 for the county in which such municipality is located. However, in the event that selection of directors in said manner results in an 43

44 even number of directors, the Governor of the State of Mississippi 45 shall appoint one (1) additional director * * * so that there 46 shall be an odd number of directors.

(d) Each director shall take and subscribe to the oath of office required by Section 268 of the Constitution of the State of Mississippi, before a chancery clerk, that he will faithfully discharge the duties of the office, which oath shall be filed with the said clerk and by him preserved.

(e) Each director shall receive a fee not to exceed such amount as set forth in Section 25-3-69 for attending each meeting of the board and for each day actually spent in attending to the necessary business of the district and shall receive reimbursement for actual expenses thus incurred upon express authorization of the board.

The board of directors shall annually elect from 58 (f) 59 its number a president and a vice president of the district and 60 such other officers as in the judgment of the board are necessary. The president shall be the chief executive officer of the district 61 62 and the presiding officer of the board, and shall have the same 63 right to vote as any other director. The vice president shall 64 perform all the duties and exercise all powers conferred by this 65 article upon the president when the president is absent or fails or declines to act, except the president's right to vote. 66 The 67 board shall also appoint a secretary and a treasurer who may or may not be members of the board, and it may combine these offices. 68

69 The treasurer shall give bond in the sum of not less than Fifty Thousand Dollars ($50,000.00), as set by the board of directors, 70 and each director shall give bond in the sum of not less than Ten 71 72 Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), and the premiums on said bonds shall be an expense of the district. The condition of each such 73 74 bond shall be that the treasurer or director will faithfully perform all duties of the office and account for all money which 75 76 shall come into his custody as treasurer or director of the 77 district.

(g) In the event a county or municipality entitled to appoint a director or directors to the district shall not do so within twenty (20) days from the date of the order of the chancery court creating the district, the chancery court or the chancellor in vacation shall forthwith exercise the right of said county or municipality in appointing a director or directors.

84 (h) Each director shall hold office for a period of 85 four (4) years from the date of his appointment. However, in order to insure continuity of experience among the members of the 86 87 board of directors in any district created after March 26, 1981, one (1) member of the initial board of directors shall hold office 88 89 for only one (1) year, one (1) member shall hold office for only 90 two (2) years, and one (1) member shall hold office for only three (3) years, and, at the initial meeting of the board of directors, 91 92 they shall determine by lot which of their members shall serve for only one (1), two (2), or three (3) years. 93
