SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 539

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION MOURNING THE LOSS OF LEGENDARY OB/GYN
2 DR. FRED A MCKISSIC BUSH, M.D., OF JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, AND 3 EXTENDING THE CONDOLENCES OF THE LEGISLATURE TO HER FAMILY, 4 FRIENDS, COLLEAGUES AND PATIENTS.

5 WHEREAS, Mississippi lost a giant in health care this week
6 with the passing of retired OB-GYN, author and anti-abortion 7 advocate Dr. Freda McKissic Bush, M.D., on December 15, 2023; and

8 WHEREAS, "She was an accomplished physician and an even 9 better mother," her son shared. "Her favorite scripture is 10 relevant even during this time...Romans 8:28. Thank you for your 11 love and example of a life well lived"; and

12 WHEREAS, Dr. Bush graduated from the University of 13 Mississippi Medical School and completed her residency at the 14 University of Tennessee in Memphis. In 1987, she began practicing 15 in Jackson at East Lakeland OB-GYN Associates and was a Clinical 16 Instructor in the Department of OB-GYN and Department of Family
17 Medicine at the University of Mississippi Medical Center. Dr.
18 Bush went on to become President and CEO of the Medical Institute

19 for Sexual Health in 2012. She was a member of the American 20 Association of Pro-Life Obstetricians and Gynecologists; and

21 WHEREAS, Dr. Bush was an early leading voice for the 22 Mississippi Personhood Amendment for more than a decade ago. That 23 initiative failed but her advocacy did not wane. She took her 24 message across the country, often speaking specifically to African 25 American communities; and

26 WHEREAS, during her 40 years in health care, Bush co-authored 27 two books, HOOKED, New Science on How Casual Sex Is Affecting Our 28 Children and Girls Uncovered, New Research on What America's 29 Sexual Culture Does to Young Women, with Dr. Joe S. McIlhaney.
30 She was a contributing writer to Faith Matters: How African 31 American Faith Communities Can Help Prevent Teen Pregnancy,
32 published by the National Campaign to Prevent Teen Pregnancy. Dr.
33 Bush also published articles in the Journal of Medical Regulation,
34 Mississippi State Medical Association Journal, Christianity Today, 35 Charisma Magazine, and Christian Living Metro Jackson; and

36 WHEREAS, Dr. Bush was part of the Mississippi Governor's Blue
37 Ribbon Task Force on Teen Pregnancy Prevention and served as Chair
38 of the Medical Advisory Subcommittee. She also served as a 39 Presidential appointee to the Presidential Advisory Council on 40 HIV/AIDS (PACHA); and

41 WHEREAS, Dr. Bush lent her voice and expertise to the 42 Physician's Resource Council for Focus on the Family and was a 43 Medical Advisor for Heartbeat International and CareNet while

44 serving as Medical Director to the Center for Pregnancy Choices in 45 Metro Jackson; and

46 WHEREAS, U.S. Senator Roger Wicker issued this statement on 47 the death of Dr. Bush. "Gayle and I mourn the loss of Dr. Freda 48 Bush, a giant of the pro-life cause whose example inspired 49 doctors, nurses, and citizens across the nation. In her 30 years
50 as an OB-GYN, Dr. Bush worked on the front lines serving women and 51 children, becoming a leading voice for the unborn. She championed
52 the Mississippi Life Equality Act in 2020, which has saved
53 countless lives. Her journey from nurse to doctor to pro-life 54 leader was an American success story. Her impact will live on in 55 the lives of those she inspired and the children who were born 56 because of her tireless efforts. As we mourn her loss, we 57 celebrate her legacy"; and

58 WHEREAS, Dr. Bush was loved and cherished by many, including 59 her parents, James E. McKissic and Rosa Daniels-McKissic; her 60 husband, Lee Bush; four children; 12 grandchildren; three 61 great-grandchildren; and Dr. James Dobson, and Dr. Jim Daly; and

62 WHEREAS, we pay tribute and cherish fondly the memory of this 63 most public-spirited citizen of Jackson, Mississippi, whose 64 enormous civic energy and advocacy was an example to others of how 65 to live your convictions with courage. She will be missed:

66 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 67 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 68 we do hereby mourn the loss of legendary OB/GYN Dr. Freda McKissic

69 Bush, M.D., of Jackson, Mississippi, and extend the condolences of 70 the Legislature to her family, friends, colleagues and patients.

71 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 72 the surviving family of Dr. Bush, forwarded to the CEO of the 73 University of Mississippi School of Medicine and the Director of 74 East Lakeland OB-GYN Associates, and made available to the Capitol
75 Press Corps.
