SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 41

1 A RESOLUTION OFFERING THE SINCEREST CONGRATULATIONS OF THE 2 MISSISSIPPI SENATE TO NICHOLAS ANDERSON OF VICKSBURG, MISSISSIPPI, 3 IN RECOGNITION OF HIS OUTSTANDING FOOTBALL AWARDS AT THE HIGH 4 SCHOOL, JUNIOR COLLEGE AND UNIVERSITY LEVEL AND FOR HIS CAMPUS 5 LEADERSHIP AND COMMUNITY SERVICE.

6 WHEREAS, we join the family, friends and fellow citizens of 7 Vicksburg, Mississippi, in recognizing the athletic, academic and 8 community awards of Nicholas Anderson who is the grandson of 9 Vicksburg Mayor and former Representative George Flaggs; and

10 WHEREAS, the life and accomplishments of Nicholas Anderson are an inspiration for all athletes. Nicholas acquired a passion 11 12 for sports as a very young YMCA athlete, and football became his niche, leading to academic and athletic success throughout 13 elementary, high school and college careers. Constant faith and 14 15 maintaining academic excellence were and have remained his first 16 priority; however, he gave football just as much fervor and 17 determination. He graduated with a 4.61 GPA and third in his 2018 Vicksburg High School class of 221 seniors. Some of Nicholas' 18 high school athletic accomplishments include: First Team 19

All-State, First Team All-District, All-District Most Valuable Linebacker, and back-to-back All-County Defensive Player of the Year. Participating in community awareness activities through Vicksburg High School and Chick-fil-A Leadership Academy fostered his dedication to helping others in need, especially children and the homeless; and

WHEREAS, he chose to attend Jones Junior College. After one 26 27 academic semester and football season, he transferred from Jones 28 with a 4.0 GPA in addition to First All-State and All-Conference at the junior college level, and Junior College All-American 29 30 awards. Nicholas matriculated to Tulane University in the 2019 spring semester. Life at this prestigious university was amazing, 31 32 adventurous and awarding for him. Through sheer diligence and determination, he overcame hardships, enjoyed achievements, 33 34 reached goals and became a heartfelt part of the 35 Tulane family. Through Tulane and his teammates, Nicholas was 36 active in feeding and assisting the homeless. He made the honor roll every semester at Tulane, made the 2019-2020 All-Conference 37 38 Academic Team, had a 4.00 GPA for the December 2020 fall semester, 39 and earned All-Conference Honor Roll vs Temple; and

WHEREAS, Nicholas' athletic awards include the 2020 Stephen Martin Scholar Award; PPF Football Third Team All-Conference; Phil Steele Third Team All-Conference; number-two Ranked Linebacker for the 2020 season; and ranked number forty-nine out of the top one hundred players in college football. Since 2020, he has received
