SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 58

1 A RESOLUTION HONORING THE LEGACY OF MARINE GUNNERY SERGEANT 2 ZACHARY TAYLOR OF JACKSON, MISSISSIPPI, A MONTFORD POINT MARINE, 3 ON THE OCCASION OF HIS 100TH BIRTHDAY.

WHEREAS, during Black History Month, we recognize Mississippians who have made great strides in changing the path in America. Veteran Gunnery Sergeant Zachary Taylor, 100 years of age on February 12, 2023, became a Marine during a time when black and white Marines were still segregated; and

9 WHEREAS, calling on his duty to serve his country, Taylor was one of many black Marines who served during World War II as 10 11 Montford Point Marines, after President Franklin Roosevelt issued 12 an Executive Order establishing the Fair Employment Practices Commission in June 1941. Because the Marine Corps was the last 13 14 military branch to be integrated, black service members trained at Montford Point in Jacksonville, North Carolina, from August 1942 15 16 until the camp was decommissioned in September 1949. The largest number of black Marines to serve was at the seizure of Okinawa, 17

19 black Marines served in the Marine Corps; and 20 WHEREAS, after graduating Holy Ghost Catholic School, Taylor 21 went on to graduate from Eastern Illinois University. He then 22 joined the Air Force, becoming a Pharmacist. The father of six 23 then worked at the Jackson V.A. as a Pharmacist until retirement. Now the veteran spends his days resting, enjoying life with his 24 25 children, and keeping his mind sharp. "I've had 99 years of 26 partying all over the world, " said the military veteran of the 27 Greatest Generation. Longevity runs in the Taylor family. His 28 mother passed away at 99; and

29 WHEREAS, the National Montford Point Marine Association was 30 established in 1975 to honor African Americans who served in the 31 Marine Corps; and

32 WHEREAS, Naval Air Station Meridian hosted the Montford Point 33 Association for a ceremony to honor Sergeant Taylor with the 34 Congressional Gold Medal. He was honorably discharged as a 35 Sergeant; and

36 WHEREAS, Gunnery Sergeant Taylor is a true American hero. 37 Like all the other Montford Point Marines, he was a trailblazer 38 who dared to be a Marine during a time when African Americans were 39 excluded from the Marines. The story of the Montford Point 40 Marines is a story of resilience and perseverance. Those Marines 41 should not be forgotten, and everyone should honor their
