1 A RESOLUTION COMMEMORATING THE 25TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE "GOOD 2 FRIDAY AGREEMENT" (April 10, 1998-April 10, 2023) WHICH NEGOTIATED 3 A DEVOLVED INDEPENDENT GOVERNMENT IN NORTHERN IRELAND AND TO 4 EXPRESS THE SUPPORT OF THE MISSISSIPPI SENATE FOR THE CITIZENS OF 5 NORTHERN IRELAND ON THIS AUSPICIOUS OCCASION.

6 WHEREAS, the Good Friday Agreement, also called Belfast 7 Agreement, reached on April 10, 1998, and ratified in both Ireland 8 and Northern Ireland by popular vote on May 22, 1998, called for 9 devolved independent government in Northern Ireland. The Good 10 Friday Agreement represented a landmark breakthrough that provided 11 Ireland with a political framework to address its future; and 12 WHEREAS, the 25th Anniversary of the Good Friday Agreement has been reached, and while there are still outstanding issues, it has been a considerable success. There are people alive in Northern Ireland and on the island of Ireland today because of the continuous bipartisan support for the Good Friday Agreement over the last 25 years by State Legislators, successive United States Presidents, the United States Senate, United States House of Representatives, and elected officials working in partnership with

22 WHEREAS, the Good Friday Agreement, on this year of the 25th 23 Anniversary of its ratification, is the framework for lasting 24 peace in Northern Ireland. The Good Friday Agreement acknowledged 25 the right of differing political traditions to pursue their goals 26 of remaining part of the United Kingdom or of Irish Unity. The 27 Good Friday Agreement demonstrated democratic and peaceful means 28 of resolving differences; and

29 WHEREAS, we recognize the British and Irish Governments' 30 ongoing support and implementation of the Good Friday Agreement. 31 It is the irrevocable foundation of the peace process regardless 32 of the United Kingdom's status regarding the European Union; and 33 WHEREAS, members of both political parties in the United 34 States came together to support the Good Friday Agreement; and

35 WHEREAS, on the 17th of March during the annual celebration 36 of the Feast of Saint Patrick, the Patron Saint of Ireland, Irish 37 Americans join with men, women and children of all ethnic origins 38 and for one day become "Irish" and celebrate Saint Patrick, and 39 this year we also celebrate and give thanks for the 25th 40 Anniversary of the Good Friday Peace Agreement; and

41 WHEREAS, 2023 also marks the 175th Anniversary of the first 42 flying of the Irish Flag by Thomas Meagher who embodied the links 43 between Ireland and the United States of America. In one 44 lifetime, Thomas Meagher ran for the City Council in Waterford,

52 WHEREAS, the State of Mississippi has an important historical 53 connection to the culture of Ireland and Northern Ireland. While 54 some Irish settlers moved to what is today Mississippi when the 55 British ruled West Florida, the first major Irish presence in the 56 state came when the Spanish took the colony back after the 57 American War of Independence. With Roman Catholicism the established religion, Irish priests came to serve in the Natchez 58 59 District. For the next few decades, the predominant Irish 60 presence in the state was Protestant. The advent of the Great 61 Famine pushed more than 2,000,000 people out of Ireland between 62 1845 and 1855, and many came to Mississippi. In 1860 the state 63 boasted almost 4,000 Irish citizens. Despite the harsh 64 conditions, the Irish stayed in Antebellum Mississippi thanks to 65 community institutions usually operated by Irish and 66 Irish-American nuns. More prosperous Irish immigrants founded 67 their own societies. The most active was the Hibernian Society in 68 Natchez. Middle-class Irish also took an active interest in Irish
