26 ANY GIFTS, DONATIONS AND OTHER FUNDS RECEIVED AND HOW THOSE FUNDS
27 WERE USED FOR THE PURPOSE OF THE PROGRAM; AND FOR RELATED 28 PURPOSES.

29 BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI:

30 SECTION 1. There is established, at Mississippi State
31 University, the "Dr. Elton Mac Huddleston Rural Veterinarians

32 Scholarship Program" for the purpose of identifying and providing 33 qualified students with scholarships to assist such students in 34 pursuing degrees through matriculation in veterinary medicine.

35 The scholarship program shall:

36 (a) Be developed and implemented in order to provide 37 encouragement, opportunities and incentives for persons pursuing a 38 veterinary medicine degree at Mississippi State University to:

39 (i) Provide veterinary services in rural 40 Mississippi communities; and 41 (ii) Receive specialized training to meet the 42 needs of rural Mississippians and livestock producers in rural 43 Mississippi communities;

44 (b) Be administered by the Dean of the Mississippi 45 State University College of Veterinary Medicine; and

46 (c) Annually award scholarships to an average of two 47 (2) scholars, whose scholarship assistance may be funded annually 48 for a period not to exceed four (4) years.

49 SECTION 2. As used in this act, the following terms shall 50 have the meanings ascribed in this section unless context of use 51 clearly requires otherwise:

52 (a) "Veterinary student" means a student enrolled in 53 the Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine.

54 (b) "Dean" means the Dean of the Mississippi State 55 University College of Veterinary Medicine.

56 (c) "Food supply animal" includes cattle, hogs, sheep, 57 goats and poultry.

58 (d) "Food supply animal veterinarian" means a 59 veterinarian who is engaged in general or food supply animal 60 practice as his or her primary focus of practice and who has 61 thirty percent (30%) of his or her practice devoted to food supply 62 animal veterinary medicine.

63 (e) "Large animal veterinarian" means a veterinarian 64 whose practice is focused primarily on the health and safety of 65 farm animals such as cattle, sheep, goats, pigs and horses, who 66 must spend sixty percent (60%) of their time providing care for 67 large animals.

68 (f) "Program" means the Dr. Elton Mac Huddleston Rural 69 Veterinarian Scholarship Program administered by the Mississippi
70 State University College of Veterinary Medicine.

71 (g) "Rural community" means an area of the state with a 72 population density less than five hundred (500) people per square 73 mile as defined by the United States Department of Agriculture.

74 (h) "Rural mixed animal veterinarian" means a 75 veterinarian who practices in a rural community with provision of 76 care to both small animals, i.e., dogs or cats, and large animals, 77 i.e., cattle, sheep, goats, pigs or horses, within which the 78 veterinarian must spend a minimum of thirty percent (30%) of his 79 or her time providing care to large animals.

80           SECTION 3. The Dean of the Mississippi State University 81 College of Veterinary Medicine shall have the following powers and 82 duties:

83                   (a) Develop the administrative policy for the Dr. Elton
84 Mac Huddleston Rural Veterinarians Scholarship Program;

85                   (b) Promulgating rules and regulations, with the advice 86 and consent of the President of Mississippi State University of 87 the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning,
88 pertaining to the implementation and operation of the Dr. Elton
89 Mac Huddleston Rural Veterinarians Scholarship Program;

90                   (c) Annually establish a selection committee, composed 91 of faculty of the Mississippi State University College of 92 Veterinary Medicine, rural mixed animal veterinarians and large 93 animal veterinarians, which shall conduct a process, independent 94 from the university's Admissions Committee, to review 95 applications, conduct virtual or in-person interviews and select 96 recipients;

97                   (d) Establish a budget, with the advice and consent of 98 the President of Mississippi State University of the Board of 99 Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning, to support the 100 activities of the program and periodically review, and if 101 appropriate, revise the scholarship and other stipends offered 102 through the program;

103 (e) Review scholarship recipients' progress in the 104 program and mentor students and veterinarians participating in the 105 program; and

106 (f) Develop and participate in programs that provide 107 initial practice support in collaboration with other interested 108 professional organizations;

109 (h) Give preference for approving communities for 110 purposes of Section 4(2)(d) to communities located in areas 111 designated by the American Veterinary Medical Association or the 112 United States Department of Agriculture as veterinary shortage 113 areas.

114 SECTION 4. (1) (a) Subject to the availability of funds, 115 the program may annually enter into agreements with up to an 116 average of two (2) veterinary students as determined by the 117 criteria established for the administration of the Dr. Elton Mac 118 Huddleston Rural Veterinarians Scholarship Program.

119 (b) Each student entering into a program agreement 120 under this section shall receive annual assistance in an amount 121 not to exceed the in-state tuition rate assessed for attending the 122 Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine for a 123 period not to exceed four (4) years for tuition and fees incurred 124 by the student in pursuit of his or her veterinary medicine
125 degree. Upon completion of all commitments under the provisions 126 of the agreement and the provisions of this section, the financial 127 obligations pursuant to this section shall be deemed satisfied and 128 forgiven.

129 (2) To be eligible for program scholarship funds, recipients 130 shall:

131 (a) Be a student of the Mississippi State University
132 College of Veterinary Medicine;

133 (b) Agree to become licensed in the practice of 134 veterinary medicine in the State of Mississippi upon graduation;

135 (c) Complete all requirements in public health,
136 livestock biosecurity, foreign animal disease diagnosis, 137 regulatory veterinary medicine and zoonotic disease, and an 138 externship and mentoring requirement with a licensed, accredited 139 veterinarian in a rural area, as required by the veterinary 140 medical school;

141 (d) Enter into a contract with the program to provide 142 full-time veterinary medicine services as a food supply animal 143 veterinarian or as a rural mixed animal veterinarian for a minimum 144 of four (4) years in one or more communities approved by the 145 program; and

146 (e) Commence the full-time practice of veterinary 147 medicine in a rural community within ninety (90) days after 148 completion of the degree program or, if the scholarship recipient 149 enters a post-degree training program, such as graduate school, 150 internship or residency program, within ninety (90) days after 151 completion of the post-degree training program; and 152 (f) Be accredited by the United States Department of 153 Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service,

154 Veterinary Services to provide services relating to food supply 155 animals within six (6) months of graduation or passage of 156 veterinary licensure examination.

157 (3) Priority shall be given to Mississippi residents. If 158 the number of Mississippi residents applying for scholarship funds 159 is less than the number of slots available, nonresident students 160 may be considered. Nonresident students shall only receive 161 scholarship funds sufficient to pay for in-state tuition rates, 162 and they must meet the same obligations as specified in subsection 163 (2) of this section for students who are residents of the State of 164 Mississippi.

165 (4) Recipients of the scholarship must remain in good 166 academic standing while in receipt of this scholarship, as 167 specified in the rules and regulations promulgated by the Dean of 168 the Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine
169 with the advice and consent of the President of Mississippi State 170 University of the Board of Trustees of State Institutions of 171 Higher Learning. If a student is dismissed or withdraws from the 172 Mississippi State University College of Veterinary Medicine, the 173 dean shall assess the circumstances of the student's dismissal or 174 withdrawal and make a formal recommendation regarding whether the 175 student shall be liable for the repayment of all or a portion of 176 the financial assistance provided to the student through the 177 program, along with other penalties that may be prescribed in 178 accordance with the policies adopted by the dean as prescribed in 179 Section 6 of this act.

180 (5) The dean may adopt additional provisions, requirements
181 or conditions for participating in the program as are practicable 182 and appropriate to accomplish the provisions of the program or 183 which may be required for the implementation or administration of 184 the program, and which are not inconsistent with the provisions of 185 this section.

186 SECTION 5. (1) The Mississippi State University College of 187 Veterinary Medicine is authorized to accept gifts, donations, 188 bequests, trusts, grants, endowments, transfers of money or 189 securities, repayments and any other monies from any source 190 whatsoever to be used for the purposes of administering the Dr.
191 Elton Mac Huddleston Rural Veterinarians Scholarship Program.

192 (2) The dean shall prepare and submit an annual report to 193 the Legislature not later than December 1 of each year, which 194 shall include, but not be limited to, information about who 195 received scholarships under the program and how much each person 196 received, and the amount of any funds received under subsection
197 (1) of this section and how those funds were used for the purpose 198 of the program.

199 (3) The appropriation request of the Mississippi State 200 University College of Veterinary Medicine and the program shall be 201 reduced if a saturation point is achieved and the shortage of 202 veterinary services in rural Mississippi is adequately addressed.

203 SECTION 6. (1) A veterinarian shall be released from the 204 program contract without penalty if:

205 (a) The veterinarian has completed the service
206 requirements of the contract;

207 (b) The veterinarian is unable to complete the service 208 requirements of the contract because of a permanent physical 209 disability;

210 (c) The veterinarian demonstrates extreme hardship or 211 shows other good cause justifying the release; or

212 (d) The veterinarian dies.

213 (2) An obligation to engage in the practice of veterinary 214 medicine in accordance with the provisions of Section 4 shall be 215 postponed during:

216 (a) Any period of temporary medical disability during 217 which the person obligated is unable to practice veterinary 218 medicine due to the disability; and 219 (b) Any other period of postponement agreed to or 220 determined in accordance with criteria agreed to in the practice 221 agreement.

222 (3) A veterinarian shall be released from further 223 performance of veterinary services under the program contract if 224 he or she is unable to perform his or her contractual obligations 225 to provide veterinary services due to the suspension or revocation

226 of his or her federal accreditation or denial, refusal of renewal, 227 limitation, suspension, revocation, or other disciplinary measure 228 taken against his or her license to practice in the State of 229 Mississippi pursuant to the Mississippi Veterinary Practice Act, 230 Chapter 39, Title 73, Mississippi Code of 1972, particularly, 231 Sections 73-39-75 and 73-39-77. If a veterinarian is released
232 from his or her contract pursuant to this subsection, the program 233 may recover a portion of or all of the payments made to such 234 veterinarian under Section 4 of this act. The dean may use 235 appropriate remedies available to enforce this subsection.

236 (4) Upon the failure of a person to satisfy the obligation
237 to engage in the full-time practice of veterinary medicine in a 238 rural community in accordance with the provisions of this section 239 with no just cause as outlined in subsection (1), that person 240 shall, within ninety (90) days of the failure, be liable for the 241 repayment of all financial assistance provided to such person
242 through the program prescribed in accordance with the policies
243 adopted by the dean, less a prorated amount based on any periods 244 of veterinary medicine practice meeting the requirements of this 245 section, plus interest at the prime rate of two percent (2%) from 246 the date the assistance accrued. The interest on any unpaid 247 obligation for violations specified in this subsection shall be 248 compounded annually.

249 SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from 250 and after July 1, 2024.
