4 WHEREAS, during American Red Cross Month in March, we 5 celebrate the humanitarian spirit of Mississippi and reaffirm our 6 commitment to help ensure no one faces a crisis alone; and

7 WHEREAS, caring for one another is at the heart of our 8 community and exemplified by the people of Mississippi, whose 9 simple acts of kindness through the Red Cross provide help and 10 hope in people's most difficult moments, continuing the 11 life-saving legacy of Clara Barton, who founded the organization
12 more than 140 years ago to prevent and alleviate human suffering; 13 and

14 WHEREAS, every day, these ordinary individuals lend a helping 15 hand to make an extraordinary difference for neighbors in need, 16 whether it's providing emergency shelter, food and comfort for 17 families displaced by home fires and other disasters; donating 18 life-saving blood for cancer patients, accident victims, and

19 people with sickle cell disease and other life-threatening 20 conditions; supporting military members and veterans, along with 21 their families and caregivers, through the unique challenges of 22 service; using vital skills like first aid and CPR to help others
23 survive medical emergencies; or delivering international
24 humanitarian aid and reconnecting loved ones separated by crises 25 around the world; and

26 WHEREAS, their support, volunteerism and generous donations
27 are critical to our community's resilience. We hereby recognize 28 this month of March in honor of all those who fulfill Clara 29 Barton's noble words, "You must never think of anything except the 30 need and how to meet it," and ask everyone to join in this 31 commitment:
