SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 35

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING THE MILLSAPS
2 "MAJORS" WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM AND HEAD COACH JUSTIN LEBLANC FOR 3 WINNING ITS FIRST-EVER CONFERENCE SAA TOURNAMENT TITLE AND ITS 4 THIRD-EVER NCAA TOURNAMENT APPEARANCE.

5 WHEREAS, the Hangar Dome was boisterous and electric, helping 6 power the Millsaps "Majors" Women's Basketball Team past Centre
7 College, 68-63 in the 2024 Southern Athletic Association (SAA)
8 Women's Basketball Championship on February 25, 2024. The result 9 was the first conference postseason title for the "Majors" and 10 advanced the team into its third-ever NCAA Tournament; and

11 WHEREAS, No. 1 seed Millsaps (24-4, 12-2 SAA) was led by SAA
12 Women's Basketball Player of the Year and MVP Haley Franklin's 35
13 points, which matched a career high. Franklin added nine rebounds
14 and two assists on 10-of-20 shooting from the floor and 15-of-21
15 from the free-throw line. The Baton Rouge, Louisiana, athlete
16 also became the 12th player in program history to surpass 1,000 17 career points; and

18           WHEREAS, Sophomore Elyse Warren, along with Haley Franklin,
19 was selected to the SAA All-Tournament Team. Warren netted eight 20 points, 11 rebounds and one steal; and

21           WHEREAS, making its fifth appearance in the SAA Title Game,
22 the "Majors" advanced to the NCAA Division III Women's Basketball
23 Tournament for the third time in school history (1994-1995, 24 1995-1996); and

25           WHEREAS, the title contest was a thrilling matchup with eight 26 ties and 11 lead changes. The largest lead of the first quarter
27 was three points as Centre held a 13-11 advantage through 10
28 minutes of play. Franklin would race coast-to-coast in under five 29 seconds to beat the halftime buzzer with what proved to be a 30 crucial driving layup. The "Colonels" held a narrow 29-27 margin
31 at halftime. The visitors earned a six-point lead with a trey
32 four minutes into the second half, but the "Majors" stormed back.
33 Millsaps utilized back-to-back Helena Roe and Tia Anderson
34 3-pointers to help finish the third quarter on a 19-8 run and hold 35 a 50-45 advantage. The "Majors" appeared to run away with the 36 game after Franklin hit a jump shot and free throw as Millsaps
37 moved ahead, 55-46 with 7:50 to play. However, Centre pulled 38 within two points with 1:39 on the clock as the pressure mounted.
39 Franklin then sank 6-of-8 free throws down the stretch to keep the 40 "Colonels" down for good. Centre hit a three-pointer, but it was 41 too little, too late as the "Majors" advanced with an automatic

42 berth to the NCAA Tournament following a 68-63 thrilling decision; 43 and
