

By: Representatives Remak, Carpenter, Hall, To: Rules
Eubanks, Hale, Keen, Kinkade, Harris

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 32

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION RECOGNIZING AND HONORING THE 2 COURAGEOUS LIFE AND EXTRAORDINARY LEGACY OF JAMES HENRY TAYLOR FOR 3 HIS SERVICE DURING THE VIETNAM WAR.

4 WHEREAS, on March 16, 1962, Flying Tiger Line Flight 739 was 5 on a secret mission, but the flight disappeared and was never 6 found, and tragically, all those on board, including 93 United 7 States Army soldiers and 11 civilian crew members, including James 8 Henry Taylor of Olive Branch, Mississippi, perished; and

9 WHEREAS, very little is known about what happened to the 10 plane and its passengers, and due to the circumstances surrounding 11 this mission, the names of those lost have not yet been added to 12 the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D.C.; and

13 WHEREAS, recently, many families and loved ones of these 14 heroes gathered in Columbia Falls, Maine, where national nonprofit 15 Wreaths Across America (WAA) is based, to be present for the 16 unveiling of a new monument dedicated to the men who were lost,
17 and the new monument, which is made entirely of granite and stands
18 8 feet tall, 9.5 feet wide and 4 feet deep at its base, displays

19 the engraving of each of the 93 Army soldiers aboard, as well as 20 the names of the 11 flight crew members, many of whom were 21 veterans themselves; and

22 WHEREAS, the inscription on the stone reads: "Missing in 23 action; Presumed dead. Flying Tiger Line Flight 739 went missing
24 on March 16, 1962, with 93 U.S. Army soldiers on board. These men 25 and their flight crew perished in what would become one of the 26 biggest aviation mysteries out of the Vietnam War era. THE NAMES
27 OF THOSE WHO GAVE THEIR LIVES AND WHO REMAIN MISSING ARE INSCRIBED
28 HERE SO THAT THEY WILL BE SAID ALOUD AND THEIR MEMORY WILL LIVE
29 ON."; and

30 WHEREAS, the land where the monument was erected was donated 31 by WAA Founder Morrill Worcester, and it is located on the balsam
32 tip land where brush is harvested each year to make veterans' 33 wreaths to be placed on the headstones of our nation's heroes on 34 National Wreaths Across America Day; and

35 WHEREAS, during the ceremony, the names of each person aboard
36 Flying Tiger Line Flight 739 were honored as they were read aloud,
37 and there have been renewed efforts to add the names of the men
38 who perished on Flight 739 to the Vietnam Veterans' Memorial Wall 39 as an everlasting tribute to their sacrifice and service; and

40 WHEREAS, Dianna Crumpler was among the family members who 41 attended the unveiling of the monument, as her brother, James 42 Henry Taylor, was on Flying Tiger Line Flight 739, and Dianna, who, along with her brother, Curtis Taylor, was 17-years-old when the flight disappeared, shared James Henry Taylor's story; and

WHEREAS, James Henry Taylor was born in Memphis, Tennessee, on January 17, 1938, to James Walter and Helen Taylor of Olive Branch, Mississippi, and he attended college at then Northwest Mississippi Junior College, now known as Northwest Community College, in Senatobia, Mississippi; and

WHEREAS, James was very popular in school, and his friends called him "Tater" and everyone who knew him commented about his smile, as they said that they never saw him when he wasn't smiling or laughing that crazy laugh that everyone knew was coming from him; and

WHEREAS, during his tenure at Northwest, he met Deanna Brown from Crenshaw, Mississippi, and fell in love, and the duo was united in holy matrimony after he graduated from Northwest; and

WHEREAS, after his marriage and graduation from Northwest, James attended Southwest College in Memphis, now known as Rhodes College, and was pursuing a career as a pastor in the Presbyterian Church, and was serving as the youth director at his home church, which is the same church his sister still attends in Olive Branch, Bethel Presbyterian Church, and the pastor at the time took him under his wing and loved him like his own son, mentoring him for the ministry; and

WHEREAS, after he finished two years of school, he found out that his wife, called Dee, was pregnant with their first child,

68 Merry Tamah Taylor-Mattix, so James decided the best way to take 69 care of his family was to enlist in the Army; and

70 WHEREAS, James spent two years in the Army when Dee became 71 pregnant with their second child, and a couple of months before 72 Jamie Ann was born, James re-enlisted because he could finish his 73 next three years in the Army and also study to be a minister while 74 in the service; and

75 WHEREAS, James had a month off between his two terms of 76 service so he brought his family back to Olive Branch to live
77 while he served, or at least until he was stationed at a permanent 78 base, but the mission to Vietnam, Tiger Line Flight 739 was his 79 first deployment; and

80 WHEREAS, James preached a sermon about going to Heaven the 81 Sunday before he left on that final flight, and the name of the 82 sermon was "The Odds against going to Heaven are 6 to 1," which 83 was named after a popular song in the early sixties; and

84 WHEREAS, the Tiger Line Flight 739 mission was a very secret
85 mission, so secret that all of the men were told they could bring 86 nothing with them that identified them in any way, so they had to 87 leave wedding rings, pictures, dog tags, and everything at home; 88 and

89 WHEREAS, many of the soldiers on Tiger Line Flight 739 told 90 their families that they would likely not be returning alive, but 91 James's family did not know how dangerous the mission was at that 92 time; and

93 WHEREAS, the flight left on March 16, 1962, and was lost from 94 radar between Guam and the Philippines or Saigon, but James's
95 sister knows the flight made it to Guam because he stopped long 96 enough while they were refueling to drop a postcard to his wife to 97 tell her that he loved her and missed her and where he was, but 98 this was the last contact anyone ever had with him; and

99 WHEREAS, the largest search ever made in the Pacific was 100 launched and several countries joined in the search for anything, 101 but nothing, not even a shred of anything, was found by anyone, 102 and after eight days, the search was called off and the hearts of 103 the family members of all those on board shattered; and

104 WHEREAS, sadly, after James left, Jamie Ann was born with a
105 heart defect and only lived for 12 days, and his daughter, Merry, 106 was 2-years-old when her father departed on Flight 739, and she 107 has said that it was difficult growing up without a father, and 108 that not knowing what happened to him added a layer of grief and 109 lack of closure; and

110 WHEREAS, Merry also attended the dedication of the monument
111 in Maine, and being there among the sons and daughters of other 112 parents who perished, she realized she wasn't alone, and to have 113 her father and the fathers of others honored in such a meaningful 114 way was healing for her; and

115 WHEREAS, James Henry Taylor's unflinching courage and gallant 116 self-sacrifice reflect lasting glory upon himself and uphold the 117 noble traditions of the infantry and the military service; and

118 WHEREAS, it is the policy of the Legislature to honor heroic
119 Mississippians such as James Henry Taylor for remarkable 120 dedication and self-sacrifice to the United States of America, the 121 State of Mississippi and the people of Olive Branch, who are 122 eternally appreciative, for without James, the freedom they know
123 and love would not be possible:

124 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF 125 REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI, THE SENATE CONCURRING
126 THEREIN, That we do hereby recognize and honor the courageous life
127 and extraordinary legacy of James Henry Taylor for his service
128 during the Vietnam War.

129 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That copies of this resolution be 130 furnished to the family of James Henry Taylor and to the members
131 of the Capitol Press Corps.

