SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 86

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING THE PEARL RIVER
2 COMMUNITY COLLEGE (PRCC) LADY WILDCATS CHEER TEAM AND HEAD COACH
3 SARAH SMITH FOR WINNING THEIR THIRD UCA NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP IN 4 FOUR YEARS.

5 WHEREAS, the Pearl River Community College (PRCC) Cheer Team
6 continued to set the bar high on the national stage, winning its 7 third UCA National Championship in four years; and

8 WHEREAS, the Lady Wildcats, under the direction of Head Coach 9 Sarah Smith, first struck gold on January 19, 2025, winning the 10 2025 All-Girl Game Day Championship; and

11 WHEREAS, "We came into this weekend with four goals, and we 12 checked each one off the list," Pearl River Cheer Coach Sarah 13 Smith said. "Our goals were to make game day finals, to hit in 14 game day finals, to make traditional finals, and to hit in 15 traditional finals. We were content with letting the results take 16 care of themselves if we accomplished those goals"; and

17 WHEREAS, in their second year competing in the Game Day
18 competition, the Wildcats held onto a minuscule half-point lead 19 heading into the Game Day finals. Not ones to rest on their

20 laurels, Pearl River delivered a nearly flawless routine and 21 captured the All-Girl Game Day National Championship by two 22 points, its third National Championship in team history. "This is 23 only our second year to take on the game day portion of the 24 competition," Coach Smith said. "It's a big task, and splitting
25 our time at home between two routines can be challenging. Winning 26 our first Game Day National Championship was very exciting and 27 fulfilling"; and

28 WHEREAS, the Wildcats followed their championship performance
29 impressively by capturing second place in the All-Girl Traditional 30 Championship on January 20, 2025; and

31 WHEREAS, Pearl River won back-to-back national championships
32 in 2022 and 2023 while placing second in the Game Day competition 33 in 2024. "I'm extremely proud of the team and how much work they 34 put into preparing for this weekend," Coach Smith said. "We are at 35 practice throughout the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays; the 36 girls sacrifice a lot and choose to commit themselves to their 37 sport. It was an honor to represent Pearl River at College 38 Nationals, and we are proud to be adding a third title to the 39 cheer program"; and

40 WHEREAS, the 2025 members of the PRCC Cheer Team are: Chloe
41 Atkins, Maddie Cooley, Taylor Davis, Katie Duran, Zoey Feazell,
