25 residents over the years. He often highlights how listening to 26 the community and engaging with its members have enriched his 27 understanding of public service. "I've been fortunate to serve 28 such wonderful citizens," he remarked, acknowledging the trust 29 they have placed in him; and

30 WHEREAS, Mayor Rhoads also recognizes the vital role played 31 by supportive boards of aldermen, which have been instrumental in 32 driving the city's progress and success; and

33 WHEREAS, Mayor Rhoads played a crucial role in establishing a 34 strong financial foundation for the city, by effectively managing 35 its reserves and debts; and

36 WHEREAS, Rhoads' commitment to public service is evident by 37 his active involvement on various state and local boards,
38 including the Mississippi Wildlife Fisheries and Parks, Merit
39 Health River Oaks Board of Trustees, East Metro Access Parkway,
40 the Rankin Hinds Pearl River Flood and Drainage Control District
41 and West Rankin Utility Authority. Through those roles, he has 42 advocated for policies benefiting both Flowood and Rankin and 43 Hinds counties; and

44 WHEREAS, as Mayor Rhoads prepares to step down, he looks 45 forward to spending more quality time with his wife Lydia, their 46 two children, and four active grandchildren. "It's time to slow 47 down and enjoy life with my family," he expressed, looking forward 48 to this new chapter. Reflecting on his career, Rhoads credits his 49 success to his unwavering faith and the support of the Flowood
50 community. He believes that prioritizing God has guided both his 51 personal and professional journey, as he leaves a legacy of 52 service, vision, and commitment. "As long as we continue to
