For the purposes of this act, a person shall be deemed to have been convicted of a crime if the person has pleaded guilty to a crime before a court or federal magistrate, or plea of nolo contendere, or has been found guilty of a crime by the decision or judgment of a court or federal magistrate or by the verdict of a jury, irrespective of the pronouncement of sentence or the suspension of a sentence, unless the plea of guilty, or the decision, judgment or verdict, has been set aside, reversed or otherwise abrogated by lawful judicial process, or unless the person convicted of the crime has received a pardon from the President of the United

357 of Housing and Urban Development designation as a mortgagee shall 358 automatically be granted a license under this act without 359 investigation by the department, unless the department has actual

361 revocation or suspension of that designation.

363 application, final verification from the Department of Public
364 Safety and/or FBI, and payment of licensing fees prescribed by SECTION 8. (1) Each license shall remain in full force and effect until relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. With each initial application for a license, the applicant shall pay to the commissioner a license fee of Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750.00), and on or before August 31 of each year thereafter, an annual renewal fee of Four Hundred Seventy-five Dollars ($475.00).

If the annual renewal fee remains unpaid thirty (30) days after August 31, the license shall expire, but not before September 30 of any year for which the annual renewal fee has been paid. If any person engages in business as provided for in this act without paying the license fee provided for in this subsection before commencing business or before the expiration of the person's current license, as the case may be, then the person shall be liable for the full amount of the license fee, plus a penalty in an amount not to exceed Twenty-five Dollars ($25.00) for each day that the person has engaged in such business without a license or after the expiration of a license. All licensing fees and penalties shall be paid into the Consumer Finance Fund of the department.

(2) Any licensee making timely and proper application for a license renewal shall be permitted to continue to operate under its existing license until its application is approved or rejected, but shall not be released from or otherwise indemnified for any act covered by this act or for any penalty incurred under this act as a result of any violation of this act or regulations adopted under this act, pending final approval or disapproval of the application for the license renewal.

For purposes of this subsection (3), approved courses shall be those as approved by the Education Committee of the National Association of Mortgage Brokers or those approved by the Mississippi Association of Mortgage Brokers, who shall submit to the department a listing of approved schools, courses, programs and special training sessions.

(5) Each licensee shall notify the department, in writing, of any change in the address of its principal place of business or of any additional location of business or any change of officer, director or principal of the licensee within thirty (30) days of the change.

(6) No licensee shall open a branch office without prior approval of the department. An application for any branch office shall be made in writing on a form prescribed by the department, which shall include at least evidence of compliance with subsection (1) of Section 13 of this act as to that branch and shall be accompanied by payment of a nonrefundable application fee of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00). conducted business under this act in accordance with law. The application shall be deemed approved if notice to the contrary has not been mailed by the department to the applicant within thirty (30) days of the date that the application is received by the department. After approval, the applicant shall give written notice to the department within ten (10) days of the commencement of business at the branch office.

SECTION 10. (1) Except as provided in this section, on and after July 1, 2000, no person shall acquire directly or indirectly ten percent (10%) or more of the voting shares of a corporation or ten percent (10%) or more of the ownership of any other entity licensed to conduct business under this act unless it first does all of the following:

(c) Pays an application fee of One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00).

(2) Upon the filing and investigation of an application, the department shall permit the applicant to acquire the interest in the licensee if it is satisfied and finds that the applicant and its members, if applicable, its directors and officers, if a corporation, and any proposed new directors and officers have provided its surety bond and have the character, reputation and experience to warrant belief that the business will be operated fairly and in accordance with the law. The department shall grant or deny the application within sixty (60) days from the date a completed application accompanied by the required fee is filed, unless the period is extended by order of the department specifying the reasons for the extension. If the application is denied, the department shall notify the applicant of the denial and the reasons for the denial.

(3) A decision of the department denying a license or registration, original or renewal shall be conclusive, except that it shall be subject to judicial review in the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County.

(4) The provisions of this section do not apply to the following, subject to notification as required in this section:

498 represent historical data for two (2) years preceding the date of 499 the last license application date forward.

500 (2) To assure compliance with the provisions of this act,
501 the department may examine the books and records of any licensee

503 shall charge the licensee an examination fee in an amount not less
504 than Two Hundred Dollars ($200.00) nor more than Three Hundred
505 Dollars ($300.00) per examination of each office or location

521 concerning matters as to the business of those persons, or other 522 such matters as may be relevant to the discovery of violations of 523 this act including, without limitation, the conduct of business
524 without a license or registration as required under this act.

525 (4) The department, in its discretion, may disclose
526 information concerning any violation of this act or any rule, 527 regulation, or order under this act, provided the information is 528 derived from a final order of the department.

529 (5) Examinations and investigations conducted under this act

(i) Make, directly or indirectly, any residential mortgage loan with the intent to foreclose on the borrower's property. (j) Charge or collect any direct payment, compensation or advance fee from a borrower unless and until a loan is actually found, obtained and closed for that borrower, and in no event shall that direct payment, compensation or advance fee exceed ten percent (10%) of the original principal amount of the loan, and any such direct payments, compensation or advance fees shall be included in all annual percentage rate (APR) calculations if required under Regulation Z of the federal Truth in Lending Act (TILA). A direct payment, compensation or advance fee as defined in this section shall not include:

(a) That all advertisements for loans regulated under this act may not be false, misleading or deceptive. No person whose activities are regulated under this act may advertise in any manner so as to indicate or imply that its interest rates or charges for loans are "recommended," "approved," "set" or "established" by the State of Mississippi;

(b) That all licensees shall maintain a copy of all advertisements citing interest rates or payment amounts primarily disseminated in this state and shall attach to each advertisement documentation that provides corroboration of the availability of the interest rate and terms of loans and names the specific media sources by which the advertisements were distributed;

(c) That all published advertisements disseminated primarily in this state by a license shall contain the name and an office address of the licensee, which shall be the same as the name and address of the licensee on record with the department.

723           SECTION 18. Each licensee shall maintain a journal of 724 mortgage transactions at the principal place of business as stated
725 on its license, which shall include at least the following 726 information:

727                   (a) Name of applicant;

(b) Date of application; and

(c) Disposition of loan application, indicating date of loan funding, loan denial, withdrawal and name of lender if applicable.

SECTION 19. (1) The department may suspend or revoke any license or registration for any reason that would have been grounds for refusal to issue an original license or registration or for:

(a) A violation of any provision of this act or any rule or regulation adopted under this act;

(b) Failure of the licensee or registrant to pay, within thirty (30) days after it becomes final and nonappealable, a judgment recovered in any court within this state by a claimant or creditor in an action arising out of the licensee's or registrant's business in this state as a mortgage company.

(2) Notice of the department's intention to enter an order denying an application for a license or registration under this act or of an order suspending or revoking a license or registration under this act shall be given to the applicant, licensee or registrant in writing, sent by registered or certified mail addressed to the principal place of business of the applicant, licensee or registrant. Within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice of intention to enter an order of denial, suspension or revocation under this act, the applicant, licensee or registrant may request in writing a hearing to contest the order. If a hearing is not requested in writing within thirty (30) days of the date of the notice of intention, the department shall enter a final order regarding the denial, suspension or revocation. Any final order of the department denying, suspending or revoking a license or registration shall state the grounds upon which it is based and shall be effective on the date of issuance. A copy of the final order shall be forwarded promptly by registered or certified mail addressed to the principal place of business of the applicant, licensee or registrant.

SECTION 20. (1) For purposes of this section, the term "person" shall be construed to include any officer, director, employee, affiliate or other person participating in the conduct of the affairs of the person subject to the orders issued under this section.

(2) If the department reasonably determines that a person required to be licensed or registered under this act has violated any law of this state or any order or regulation of the department, the department may issue a written order requiring the person to cease and desist from unlawful or unauthorized practices. In the case of an unlawful purchase of mortgage loans, the cease and desist order to a purchaser shall constitute the knowledge required under this section for any subsequent violations.

(3) Whenever a person required to be licensed or registered under this act fails to comply with the terms of an order of the department that has been properly issued, the department, upon notice of three (3) days to the person, may petition a court of competent jurisdiction for an order directing the person to obey the orders of the department within a period of time specified by the court. Upon the filing of a petition, the court shall issue an order to the licensee requiring the licensee to show cause why it should not be entered. If the court determines, after a hearing upon the merits or after failure of the person to appear when so ordered, that the order of the department was properly issued, it shall grant the relief sought by the department.

(4) Any person required to be licensed or registered under this act who has been deemed by the court to have violated the terms of any order properly issued by the department under this section shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00). The department, in determining the amount of the penalty, shall take into account the appropriateness of the penalty relative to the size of the financial resources of the person, the good faith efforts of the person to comply with the order, the gravity of the violation, the history of previous violations by the person, and other factors or circumstances that contributed to the violation. The department may compromise, modify or refund any penalty that has been imposed under this section. Any person assessed a penalty as provided in this subsection shall have the right to request a hearing on the amount of the penalty within ten (10) days after receiving notification of the assessment. If no hearing is requested within ten (10) days of the receipt of the notice, the penalty shall be final except as to judicial review in the Chancery Court of the First Judicial District of Hinds County.

SECTION 21. Nothing in this act shall preclude a person whose license or registration has been suspended or revoked from continuing to service mortgage loans pursuant to servicing contracts in existence at the time of the suspension or revocation.

SECTION 22. (1) In addition to any other penalty that may be applicable, any licensee, individual required to be registered, or employee who willfully violates any provision of this act, or who willfully makes a false entry in any document specifically required by this act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine not in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) per violation or false entry.

(2) In addition to any other penalty that may be applicable, any licensee, individual required to be registered, or employee who fails to make a record of a mortgage transaction and subsequently sells or disposes of the mortgage from that transaction shall be punished as follows:

(a) For a first offense, the licensee, individual required to be registered, or employee shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine not in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) or by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than one (1) year, or both fine and imprisonment;

(b) For a second or subsequent offense, the licensee, individual required to be registered, or employee shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punishable by a fine not in excess of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) or by imprisonment in the custody of the State Department of Corrections for a term not less than one (1) year nor more than five (5) years, or by both fine and imprisonment.

(3) Any licensee convicted in the manner provided in subsection (2) of this section shall forfeit the surety bond or deposit required in Section 6 of this act and the amount of the bond or deposit shall be credited to the budget of the state or local agency that directly participated in the prosecution of the licensee, for the specific purpose of increasing law enforcement resources for that specific state or local agency. Any proceeds of a forfeited bond or deposit shall be used to augment existing state and local law enforcement budgets and not to supplant them.

(4) Compliance with the criminal provisions of this act shall be enforced by the appropriate law enforcement agency, which may exercise for that purpose any authority conferred upon the agency by law.

(5) When the commissioner has reasonable cause to believe that a person is violating any provision of this act, the commissioner, in addition to and without prejudice to the authority provided elsewhere in this act, may enter an order requiring the person to stop or to refrain from the violation. The commissioner may sue in any chancery court of the state having jurisdiction and venue to enjoin the person from engaging in or continuing the violation or from doing any act in furtherance of the violation. In such an action, the court may enter an order or judgment awarding a preliminary or permanent injunction.

(6) The commissioner may, after notice and hearing, impose a civil penalty against any licensee if the licensee, individual required to be registered, or employee is adjudged by the commissioner to be in violation of the provisions of this act. The civil penalty shall not exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) per violation and shall be deposited into the Consumer Finance Fund of the department. Any person or officers, directors and employees thereof who violate any of the provisions of this act shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one (1) year or by a fine of not more than Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), or by both fine and imprisonment. The state may enforce its rights under the surety bond as required in Section 6 of this act as an available remedy for the collection of these fines.

SECTION 23. The commissioner may employ the necessary full-time employees above the number of permanent full-time employees authorized for the department for the fiscal year 2001, to carry out and enforce the provisions of this act. The commissioner also may expend the necessary funds and equip and provide necessary travel expenses for those employees.

897 actively and principally engaged in the business of being a
898 consumer loan broker even though the services of a consumer loan 899 broker are occasionally rendered in the attorney's practice of 900 law.

901 (e) A person who, without the consent of the owner,

SECTION 26. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after July 1, 2000.
