

By: Senator(s) Carmichael, Burton, Horhn,
Williamson, Chaney, Hyde-Smith, Johnson
(19th), Little

To: Rules

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 554

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION CONGRATULATING MERIDIAN,
2 MISSISSIPPI'S SELA WARD FOR HER NUMEROUS ACTING AWARDS AND CREDITS
3 AND COMMENDING HER FOR SUPPORTING THE HOPE FOR CHILDREN FACILITY
4 FOR CHILDREN AND OTHER CIVIC PROJECTS.

5 WHEREAS, Meridian, Mississippi's Sela Ward received her 6 second Emmy Award for Best Actress in Drama for her portrayal of 7 Lily Manning on ABC's critically acclaimed dramatic series "Once
8 And Again," which has also garnered her two Golden Globe 9 nominations; and

10 WHEREAS, Ward, married to a Los Angeles businessman (Howard 11 Sherman) and a mother of two, savors her singular role
12 representing "fortysomething" women in America, and on vacations,
13 the whole family goes off to their 280-acre ranch near Meridian, 14 Mississippi, where the rustic lifestyle is a perfect contrast to 15 the family's life in California; and

16 WHEREAS, growing up in Meridian, the former cheerleader moved 17 to Memphis to do public relations work for Pepsi, began a highly 18 successful career as a model, and turned to acting at age 27; she 19 moved to Los Angeles in 1983 and got her big break in the Burt 20 Reynolds' film "The Man Who Loved Women"; and

21 WHEREAS, Ward was last seen on the big screen in Mark
22 Christopher's "54" for Miramax; on television, Ward most recently
23 starred in Showtime's "Rescuers Stories of Courage - Two Women";
24 Ward won an Emmy Award for Best Actress in a Drama in 1994 for her 25 role as Teddy, the struggling artist and recovering alcoholic, on 26 NBC's award-winning series, "Sisters," and was nominated as 27 "Outstanding Female Actor in a Drama Series" by the Screen Actors
28 Guild in 1996. Ward also received unanimous acclaim for her 29 performance in the Lifetime original film "Almost Golden: The 30 Jessica Savitch Story," portraying the late NBC News anchorwoman;
31 the film ranks as Lifetime's highest rated movie, and the second 32 highest rated movie in cable history. Ward's performance earned
33 her a Cable Ace Award for "Outstanding Actress in a Television
34 Movie, Mini-Series or Special" in 1996. She also received a

Screen Actors Guild nomination for "Best Actress in a Television Movie or Mini-Series," as well as an Emmy nomination for "Best Actress Lead in a Television Movie, Mini-Series or Special"; and

WHEREAS, on the big screen, Ward has appeared in the Warner Brothers' blockbuster "The Fugitive" opposite Harrison Ford and Tommy Lee Jones. Other films include "My Fellow Americans" with Jack Lemmon, James Garner, Dan Ackroyd and Lauren Bacall; "Hello Again" with Shelley Long and Gabriel Byrne; Garry Marshall's "Nothing in Common" opposite Tom Hanks and Jackie Gleason; "Rustler's Rhapsody" with Tom Berenger; Ward's additional television credits include the telefilms "The Reef," "Double Jeopardy," "Killer Rules," "The Haunting of Sarah Hardy" and "Bridesmaids," the ABC mini-series "King of Love," a regular role on the CBS series "Emerald Point, N.A.S.," and appearances on "L.A. Law," "Night Court" and "Saturday Night Live," as well as a recent guest spot on the critically acclaimed situation comedy "Frasier"; and

WHEREAS, Sela's generosity and support for her Mississippi community is a matter of record: HOPE FOR CHILDREN: Sela has provided funding and management effort to this project, a residential facility for children with special needs; Hope for Children was able to purchase the Masonic Home due to Sela's relationship with the Entertainment Industry Foundation; this grant from the Entertainment Industry Foundation will not only purchase the property, but will pay for the renovations; Sela's guidance in this project has encouraged individuals that would not have participated without her; Sela's vision for this organization goes well beyond opening a shelter for children in Meridian, but to developing a blueprint that can be used by communities throughout the United States "Rethinking the Orphanage"; OPERA HOUSE: Sela became interested in this project years ago; she has been obsessed with this "entombed jewel box" since she first saw photos when she was doing a school project at eight years old; it has been her dream to see such an important part of Mississippi's history restored; she engaged and challenged the community to save this treasure and became the energy in this project enlisting many others including Trent Lott, Mack Portera and Chip Pickering; she has been the catalyst in this project from the very beginning; Sela has worked tirelessly on local, state and national funding, and in a few short years, Meridian will have a renovated Grand Opera House, Riley Educational Center and a 500-car downtown parking garage; DOWNTOWN REVITALIZATION: Sela has participated in recapturing downtown Meridian's revitalization, not only with the Opera House, but also with private ventures that will bring an excitement to the area; she has worked tirelessly not only creating public investment but to create private investment that will bring new jobs to the downtown area; ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT: Sela has worked with many different projects in this area to create an energy and culture that would encourage investment in our state as well as this community; she gave instant credibility to Meridian's presentation for the Southern Arts and Entertainment Project; this effort is helping to change the image of both the state and the community; she has offered her help and assistance in attracting new economic opportunities for the future generations; and

WHEREAS, it is with great pride that we recognize the professional achievements and civic dedication of this famous Mississippi actress, who has brought honor to her home community and to the State of Mississippi:

94 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 95 MISSISSIPPI, THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES CONCURRING THEREIN, That 96 we do hereby congratulate Meridian, Mississippi's Sela Ward for 97 her numerous acting awards and credits, commend her for supporting 98 the Hope for Children facility for children and other civic 99 projects in Meridian, and wish her continued success in her 100 professional career and in her charitable projects.

101 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be 102 presented to Sela Ward and her family and be made available to the 103 Capitol Press Corps.