150 municipal elections or to the election of the offices of justice
151 of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, circuit

153 (7) Nothing in this section shall prohibit special elections
154 to fill vacancies in either house of the Legislature from being

156 under the provisions of Section 23-15-851 the commissioner shall 157 have printed on the ballot the name of any candidate who, not 158 having been nominated by a political party, shall have been 159 requested to be a candidate for any office by a petition filed 160 with said commissioner by 5:00 p.m. not less than ten (10) working

162 qualified electors.

163 (8) The appropriate election commission shall determine
164 whether each candidate is a qualified elector of the state, state 165 district, county or county district they seek to serve, and 166 whether each candidate meets all other qualifications to hold the 167 office he is seeking or presents absolute proof that he will,

168 subject to no contingencies, meet all qualifications on or before 169 the date of the general or special election at which he could be 170 elected to office. The election commission also shall determine 171 whether any candidate has been convicted of any felony in a court
172 of this state, or has been convicted on or after December 8, 1992, 173 of any offense in another state which is a felony under the laws 174 of this state, or has been convicted of any felony in a federal 175 court on or after December 8, 1992. Excepted from the above are 176 convictions of manslaughter and violations of the United States
177 Internal Revenue Code or any violations of the tax laws of this 178 state, unless the offense also involved misuse or abuse of his 179 office or money coming into his hands by virtue of his office. If 180 the appropriate election commission finds that a candidate either 181 (a) is not a qualified elector, (b) does not meet all 182 qualifications to hold the office he seeks and fails to provide 183 absolute proof, subject to no contingencies, that he will meet the 184 qualifications on or before the date of the general or special 185 election at which he could be elected, or (c) has been convicted 186 of a felony as described in this subsection, and not pardoned, 187 then the name of such candidate shall not be placed upon the 188 ballot.

189 (9) If after the deadline to qualify as a candidate for an 190 office or after the time for holding any party primary for an 191 office, there shall be only one (1) person who has duly qualified 192 to be a candidate for the office in the general election, the name 193 of such person shall be placed on the ballot.

194 (10) The petition required by this section may not be filed
195 by using the Internet.

200 for the office of judge of the Supreme Court, judges of the Court 201 of Appeals, circuit judge, chancellor and justice court judge to 202 address the people during court terms. In order to give further 203 and every possible emphasis to the fact that the * * * judicial

206 jurisdiction conferred upon the courts by this chapter, the judges 207 thereof should be as far removed as possible from any political

219 cast his individual vote. Any candidate for any office, whether 220 nominated with or without opposition, at any primary wherein a 221 candidate for any one of the judicial offices * * * mentioned in 222 this section is to be nominated who shall deliberately, knowingly 223 and willfully violate the provisions of this section shall forfeit 224 his nomination, or if elected at the following general election by 225 virtue of said nomination, his election shall be void.

230 of justice of the Supreme Court, judge of the Court of Appeals, 231 circuit judge, chancellor, county court judge, family court judge 232 and justice court judge. All * * * justices and judges, except 233 justice court judges, shall be full-time positions and the 234 justices and judges shall not engage in the practice of law before 235 any court, administrative agency or other judicial or 236 quasi-judicial forum except as provided by law for finalizing 237 pending cases after election to judicial office.
