SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 26

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING JANICE AMMANN ON 2 THE OCCASION OF HER RETIREMENT AFTER 16 YEARS AS A VALUABLE
3 SESSION EMPLOYEE FOR THE MISSISSIPPI SENATE AND FOR HER PUBLIC
4 SERVICE.

5 WHEREAS, when the Mississippi Senate convened in Regular 6 Session on Tuesday, January 7, 2003, Mrs. Janice Ammann also 7 returned to Jackson for her 16th Session, providing indispensable
8 public service in the Office of the Secretary where she handles 9 correspondence and proofreading responsibilities; and

10 WHEREAS, although Mrs. Ammann originally retired from working 11 for the state in 1986, she has been working as a session-only 12 employee since 1988, and has recently announced her well-deserved
13 retirement from the Senate; and

14 WHEREAS, Janice lives in Biloxi near her sister, Patti, but 15 rents an apartment in Jackson each year during the session, 16 driving home on weekends to stay with her daughter and 17 grandchildren; and

18 WHEREAS, Janice has a history with state government. In 19 1969, a widow with two sons in college and a daughter in high
20 school, she went to work for the Law Firm of Watkins, Pyle,
21 Ludlam, Winter and Stennis and was assigned to Attorney William 22 Winter. She was introduced to politics when he ran and won the 23 Lieutenant Governor's race, and he invited her to come along with 24 him when he moved to the Capitol. As Lieutenant Governor, he 25 served as President of the Senate, and thus her history with the 26 Senate began; and

27 WHEREAS, after three years, she decided to go to Washington
28 D.C., to work for Senator John Stennis as a caseworker. But only

29 six months later, Winter called and asked her to come back to 30 Jackson to manage his campaign office in another bid for Governor.
31 She did, he won, and they moved into the Governor's Office. In 32 her words, "the beautiful Governor's Mansion." She screened all 33 his calls, maintained his schedule and appointments, attended
34 staff meetings and generally assisted the Governor in whatever way 35 she was needed. She loved the job and the hustle and bustle in 36 the position; and

37 WHEREAS, Janice met many celebrities while working for 38 Governor Winter. She has a photo taken with John Glenn and his 39 wife, Annie; one with Nancy Reagan; and another taken with Senator
40 John Stennis. She is proud of the work that was done by Governor 41 Winter while in office; and

42 WHEREAS, Janice was born in Dayton, Kentucky, across the 43 river from Cincinnati, Ohio, 20 minutes before her twin sister,
44 Patti. She married Allen Ammann of Dayton, Kentucky, on March 14, 45 1942, during World War II. Allen was assigned to Lowry Field in 46 Denver, Colorado, and they were married while he was home on a 47 five-day pass. Allen became Art Director for the Godwin Agency in 48 Jackson, Mississippi, and remained in that position until his 49 death on January 19, 1967, at the age of 47. She had one son at 50 Ole Miss, one at Mississippi State University and a daughter who 51 was a junior in high school. She took a short secretarial course, 52 went to work and the rest is history; and

53 WHEREAS, Janice's children have done well and are very close 54 to her. Her oldest son, Alan Ammann, holds a Doctorate in 55 Economics from Mississippi State University and is Professor of 56 Economics at Meredith College in Raleigh, North Carolina. Her
57 son, Steven Ammann, is President of People's Bank in Mendenhall, 58 Mississippi; he and his wife, Deborah, live in Mendenhall and have 59 three children and one grandchild. Her daughter, Maureen Ammann
60 Hamel, is Benefits Specialist at Memorial Hospital at Gulfport; 61 she and husband, Ray, have two children; and

62 WHEREAS, her vocabulary and knowledge amaze all of us in the 63 Senate and her appreciation of learning is very apparent in her 64 children's education; and

65 WHEREAS, former Governor William Winter characterized Janice 66 with these words: "She did so much to make my professional and 67 legal career as productive as it was. I could entrust any 68 responsibility to her with the assurance that it would be carried 69 out with the utmost confidence and professionalism. I never had a 70 more trusted or loyal associate":

71 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 72 MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby commend and congratulate Mrs.
73 Janice Ammann on the occasion of her retirement after 16 years as 74 a valuable session employee of the Mississippi Senate, and thank 75 her for her public service to the State of Mississippi.

76 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 77 Janice and her family at the former Senators' reunion proceedings
78 on February 20, 2003, and be made available to the Capitol Press
79 Corps.
