SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 54

1 A RESOLUTION COMMENDING THE LIFE AND LEGACY OF CHARITABLE AND 2 PUBLIC SERVICE OF THE HONORABLE FRANK DURAND STIMLEY, AND 3 EXPRESSING THE SYMPATHY OF THE SENATE.

4 WHEREAS, respected attorney Frank Stimley of Jackson,
5 Mississippi, who supported many local charities, has passed away;
6 and

7 WHEREAS, Frank Durand Stimley, Esquire, was born February 17,
8 1948 in Chicago, Illinois. He was the third child born to 9 Charles Edmond Stimley (deceased) and Bernice Allen Stimley.
10 Charles and Bernice Stimley were native Mississippians who had 11 moved to Chicago in the mid-1930's, after finishing Alcorn
12 College. In 1950, when Frank was two years old, his parents 13 decided to go against the tide of migration to the North. They 14 left Chicago, returned to their native Mississippi, and opened a 15 business with Bernice Stimley's brother, Sherman Lloyd Allen 16 ("S.L."). They located the business in the Georgetown area of 17 Jackson, on the corner of Carver Street and Mobile Avenue; and

18 WHEREAS, growing up in the store, Frank was a promising
19 businessman by the early age of ten. Frank would always credit
20 much of his career success to his parents (Charles and Bernice 21 Stimley) and the valuable academic preparation he received at 22 Lanier High School in Jackson, Mississippi. Frank was 23 Valedictorian of his 1965 Lanier High School Class and he was 24 elected Mr. Lanier. A standout football and baseball player, he 25 turned down an opportunity to play professional baseball for the 26 St. Louis Cardinals, to attend Columbia University in New York
27 City; and

28           WHEREAS, in 1969, Frank received his undergraduate Bachelor 29 of Arts Degree in Electrical Engineering from Columbia University, 30 with honors. He was an outstanding star baseball player on the 31 Columbia University team. In the fall of 1969, Frank decided to 32 move from his college major of electrical engineering into 33 business by entering Harvard Business School's MBA program. Still 34 seeking excellence, Frank wasn't satisfied to obtain one degree 35 from Harvard University. One year later, he applied for and was 36 admitted into Harvard's joint degree program in law and business.
37 Frank joined his sister Pernila at Harvard University Law School
38 in 1970. A year later, Sherman Stimley joined them at Harvard Law
39 School. This remarkable academic feat made the Stimley's first 40 family to ever have three siblings at Harvard Law School at the 41 same time; and

42           WHEREAS, Frank was graduated in 1973, from both Harvard Law
43 School and Harvard Business School, receiving a Juris Doctorate
44 Degree (J.D.) and a Masters in Business Administration (M.B.A.), 45 both with honors. He remains one of a select few African 46 Americans in the country to have accomplished this distinction.
47 Immediately after graduation, Frank married Cynthia Bagwell, of 48 Boston, Massachusetts. They were married in the historic Charles 49 Street A.M.E. Church. To this union of thirty-one years, two 50 children were born, Kahrna and Vincent; and

51           WHEREAS, still a trailblazer, Frank decided to turn down job
52 offers in Massachusetts and New York and return to Mississippi
53 after his graduation, where he became the first African American 54 lawyer hired by a major law firm in the State of Mississippi, Wise 55 Carter Child Steen & Caraway. He also became the first African 56 American lawyer to become a partner with that firm. His 57 association with the Wise Carter law firm afforded him the 58 opportunity to work for most of the major investment banks and 59 lending institutions in the state; and

60           WHEREAS, on March 1, 1982, Attorney Stimley made another 61 significant career decision. Deciding he could better help his 62 community and his family by opening his own law firm, he founded 63 the Law Office of Frank D. Stimley that same year. Frank was 64 always known as a "man with a plan" and his firm quickly developed 65 the reputation for providing top quality legal service. Simply 66 put, Frank's reputation was one of legal excellence; and

67           WHEREAS, operating a general civil practice, but also 68 concentrating in Real Estate, Public Finance and Corporate 69 transactions, Frank became one of the first African American 70 lawyers in Mississippi to earn the coveted distinction of being 71 listed in the "Red Book". This recognition is given to lawyers
72 who have handled financial transactions which exceed $1 Billion 73 Dollars. His brother Sherman Stimley was the first African 74 American attorney in the State of Texas to gain this same 75 recognition; and

76           WHEREAS, he served as a Deacon at Morningstar Baptist Church
77 for 18 years under Dr. M.K. Nelson, and after his death, also 78 served as a Deacon with Progressive Morning Star Baptist Church
79 under Bishop Charles W. Garrett; and

80           WHEREAS, Frank used his legal talents to assist many 81 charitable causes. He was intimately involved in helping secure 82 the financing for numerous churches, Head Start programs, medical 83 clinics and non-profit organizations. He provided services for 84 Jackson Redevelopment Authority and other economic development
85 entities for over two decades; and

86           WHEREAS, Frank's involvement in providing legal assistance to 87 numerous charitable organizations including Friends of Children, 88 Stewpot, Catholic Charities and the United Way was recognized on 89 numerous occasions and he received countless awards and 90 certificates. He was personally very proud of his legal 91 contributions to the Farish Street Redevelopment Program; and

92           WHEREAS, Frank's contribution and legacy to his family, 93 church, legal and general community will live on through the many 94 lives he has positively affected; and

95           WHEREAS, he leaves numerous friends and family to mourn him 96 and it is with great sadness that we note the passing of this
97 individual whose well documented contributions to his community
98 and state serve as an example to all Mississippians:

99           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF 100 MISSISSIPPI, That we do hereby commend the life and legacy of 101 charitable and public service of the Honorable Frank Durand
102 Stimley of Jackson, Mississippi, and express to his surviving 103 family the sympathy of the Senate on his passing.

104           BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this resolution be presented to 105 his mother, Mrs. Bernice Allen Stimley and his wife, Mrs. Cynthia
106 Bagwell Stimley and be made available to the Capitol Press Corps.
