Amend by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

20 SECTION 1. Section 75-67-103, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 21 amended as follows:

22 75-67-103. The following words and phrases, when used in 23 this article, shall, for the purposes of this article, have the 24 meanings respectively ascribed to them in this section, except 25 where the context clearly describes and indicates a different 26 meaning:

27 (a) "Person" means and includes every natural person, 28 firm, corporation, copartnership, joint-stock or other association 29 or organization, and any other legal entity whatsoever.

30 (b) "Licensee" means and includes every person holding 31 a valid license issued under the provisions of the Small Loan 32 Privilege Tax Law [Sections 75-67-201 through 75-67-243] of this 33 state, except those specifically exempt by the provisions of this 34 article, who, in addition to any other rights and powers he or it 35 might otherwise possess, engages in the business of lending money 36 either directly or indirectly, to be paid back in monthly 37 installments or other regular installments for periods of more or 38 less than one (1) month, and whether or not the lender requires

39 security from the borrower as indemnity for the repayment of the 40 loan.

41 (c) "Occasional lender" means a person making not more 42 than one (1) loan in any month or not more than twelve (12) loans 43 in any twelve-month period.

44 (d) "Commissioner" means the Commissioner of Banking

49 copy or produced in a format of storage commonly described as 53 original.

54 (g) "Other charges" means any amounts contracted for or 55 received by any licensee or other person in connection with a 56 loan, other than finance charges as defined in Section 75-17-25.

57 SECTION 2. Section 75-67-119, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 58 amended as follows:

59 75-67-119. (1) If any finance charge in excess of that 60 expressly permitted by Section 75-17-21 is contracted for or 61 received, all finance charges and other charges shall be forfeited 62 and may be recovered, whether the contract is executed or 63 executory. If any finance charge is contracted for or received 64 that exceeds the maximum finance charge authorized by law by more 65 than one hundred percent (100%), the principal and all finance 66 charges and other charges shall be forfeited and any amount paid 67 may be recovered by suit. In addition, a licensee * * * who 68 knowingly participated in that violation shall be guilty of a 69 misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a 70 fine of not more than Four Thousand Dollars ($4,000.00) and not less than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), in the discretion of the court. In addition to any action taken in court, the Commissioner of Banking and Consumer Finance shall forthwith cite the licensee to show cause why its license should not be revoked, and proceedings thereon shall be as is specifically provided in the Small Loan Privilege Tax Law (Sections 75-67-201 through 75-67-243).

(2) If any licensee or other person subject to the provisions of this Article 3 contracts for or receives, or participates in contracting for or receiving, other charges in violation of any applicable statutory or common law duty, or which are otherwise unlawful, all those unlawful other charges shall be forfeited and may be recovered, whether the contract is executed or executory. If the unlawful other charges subject to forfeiture under this subsection (2) exceed Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) in a single loan transaction, liquidated damages in the amount of three (3) times the unlawful other charges or Three Thousand Dollars ($3,000.00), whichever is greater, may be recovered. If the unlawful other charges subject to forfeiture under this subsection (2) exceed One Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($1,500.00) in a single loan transaction, liquidated damages in the amount of three (3) times the unlawful other charges, or Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), whichever is greater, may also be recovered. If the unlawful other charges subject to forfeiture under this subsection (2) are found to have been contracted for or received by means constituting fraud, the consumer shall also be entitled to recover an additional amount equal to three (3) times the amount recovered under this subsection (2), and reasonable attorney's fees as determined by the court.

(3) Except as provided in subsection (4) of this section, the remedies and penalties provided in this section shall be the exclusive remedies and penalties for all claims against a licensee

103 or any other person subject to the provisions of this Article 3 104 for contracting for or receiving any finance charge in excess of 105 that expressly permitted by Section 75-17-21; or for violation of 106 any provision of this article or any rule or regulation 107 promulgated under this article or any provision of Title 75, 108 Chapter 17, Mississippi Code of 1972, for contracting for or 109 receiving, or participates in contracting for or receiving, other 110 charges; or in violation of any applicable statutory or common law 111 duty; or which are otherwise unlawful. However, the provisions of 112 Section 85-5-7 apply to causes of action filed under this section.

113 (4) The remedies and penalties provided in this section are 114 supplemental to the defense provided in Section 75-67-127(3) and 115 to the enforcement powers conferred upon the Commissioner of 116 Banking and Consumer Finance.

117 (5) The penalties provided in subsection (2) shall not apply 118 if the licensee discovers the violation or is notified of the 119 violation by the commissioner and within sixty (60) days after 120 discovering the violation, and prior to the receipt of written 121 notice of the violation from the consumer, the licensee notifies 122 the affected consumer of the violation and either refunds or gives 123 credit for the unlawful other charge.

124 (6) Fraud, as that term is used in this section, shall not 125 be found to have occurred in the event written disclosures were 126 provided to the consumer disclosing the other charges in 127 compliance with applicable federal and state disclosure statutes 128 and regulations, including, but not limited to, the federal 129 Consumer Credit Protection Act, as amended, and Regulation Z 130 promulgated thereunder, if the amount of the other charges does 131 not violate any provision of law.

132 SECTION 3. Section 11-11-3, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 133 amended as follows:

11-11-3. (1) (a) (i) Civil actions of which the circuit court has original jurisdiction shall be commenced in the county where the defendant resides, or, if a corporation, in the county of its principal place of business, or in the county where a substantial alleged act or omission occurred or where a substantial event that caused the injury occurred.

(ii) Civil actions alleging a defective product may also be commenced in the county where the plaintiff obtained the product.

(b) If venue in a civil action against a nonresident defendant cannot be asserted under paragraph (a) of this subsection (1), a civil action against a nonresident may * * * be commenced in the county where the plaintiff resides or is domiciled.

(2) In any civil action where more than one (1) plaintiff is joined, each plaintiff shall independently establish proper venue; it is not sufficient that venue is proper for any other plaintiff joined in the civil action.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection (1) of this section:

(a) Any action against a licensed physician, osteopath, dentist, nurse, nurse practitioner, physician assistant, psychologist, pharmacist, podiatrist, optometrist, chiropractor, institution for the aged or infirm, hospital or licensed pharmacy, including any legal entity which may be liable for their acts or omissions, for malpractice, negligence, error, omission, mistake, breach of standard of care or the unauthorized rendering of professional services shall be brought only in the county in which the alleged act or omission occurred; and

(b) Any action brought pursuant to Section 75-67-119 shall be brought only in the county in which the credit transaction occurred or where the plaintiff resides.

165 (4) (a) If a court of this state, on written motion of a 166 party, finds that in the interest of justice and for the 167 convenience of the parties and witnesses a claim or action would 168 be more properly heard in a forum outside this state or in a 169 different county of proper venue within this state, the court 170 shall decline to adjudicate the matter under the doctrine of forum 171 non conveniens. As to a claim or action that would be more 172 properly heard in a forum outside this state, the court shall 173 dismiss the claim or action. As to a claim or action that would 174 be more properly heard in a different county of proper venue 175 within this state, the venue shall be transferred to the 176 appropriate county. In determining whether to grant a motion to 177 dismiss an action or to transfer venue under the doctrine of forum 178 non conveniens, the court shall give consideration to the 179 following factors:

180 (i) Relative ease of access to sources of proof;
181 (ii) Availability and cost of compulsory process 182 for attendance of unwilling witnesses;

183 (iii) Possibility of viewing of the premises, if 184 viewing would be appropriate to the action;

185 (iv) Unnecessary expense or trouble to the 186 defendant not necessary to the plaintiff's own right to pursue his 187 remedy;

188 (v) Administrative difficulties for the forum 189 courts;

190 (vi) Existence of local interests in deciding the 191 case at home; and 192 (vii) The traditional deference given to a 193 plaintiff's choice of forum.

194 (b) A court may not dismiss a claim under this 195 subsection until the defendant files with the court or with the 196 clerk of the court a written stipulation that, with respect to a new action on the claim commenced by the plaintiff, all the defendants waive the right to assert a statute of limitations defense in all other states of the United States in which the claim was not barred by limitations at the time the claim was filed in this state as necessary to effect a tolling of the limitations periods in those states beginning on the date the claim was filed in this state and ending on the date the claim is dismissed.

SECTION 4. Section 11-1-60, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
amended as follows:

11-1-60. (1) For the purposes of this section, the following words and phrases shall have the meanings ascribed herein unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

(a) "Noneconomic damages" means subjective, nonpecuniary damages arising from death, pain, suffering, inconvenience, mental anguish, worry, emotional distress, loss of society and companionship, loss of consortium, bystander injury, physical impairment, disfigurement, injury to reputation, humiliation, embarrassment, * * * other nonpecuniary damages, and any other theory of damages such as fear of loss, illness or injury. The term "noneconomic damages" shall not include * * * punitive or exemplary damages.

(b) "Actual economic damages" means objectively verifiable pecuniary damages arising from medical expenses and medical care, rehabilitation services, custodial care, disabilities, loss of earnings and earning capacity, loss of income, burial costs, loss of use of property, costs of repair or replacement of property, costs of obtaining substitute domestic services, loss of employment, loss of business or employment opportunities, and other objectively verifiable monetary losses.

* * *

228 (2) Nothing contained in subsection (1) of this section 229 shall be construed as creating a cause of action or as setting 230 forth elements of or types of damages that are or are not 231 recoverable in any type of cause of action.

232 (3) (a) Except as otherwise provided in Section 2 of House 233 Bill No. 1323, 2004 Regular Session, for causes of action filed on 234 or after May 15, 2004, the aggregate amount recoverable for 235 noneconomic damages by a plaintiff in any claim for injury shall 236 not exceed Two Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($250,000.00) 237 regardless of the number of parties against whom an action is 238 brought or the number of separate claims or actions brought with 239 respect to the same injury.

240 (b) The jury shall not be advised of the limitations 241 imposed by this subsection (3), and the judge shall appropriately 242 reduce any award of noneconomic damages that exceeds the 243 applicable limitation.

244 * * *

245 (4) Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose a 246 limitation on * * * actual economic damages.

247 SECTION 5. Section 11-1-65, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 248 amended as follows:

249 11-1-65. (1) For the purposes of this section, 250 "compensatory" means the amount of money awarded to a party for 251 the party's actual damages, whether economic or noneconomic.

252 (2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 2 of House Bill 253 No. 1323, 2004 Regular Session, or other specific provision of 254 statutory law constituting an exclusive remedy, in any action in 255 which punitive damages are sought:

256 (a) Punitive damages may not be awarded if the claimant 257 does not prove by clear and convincing evidence that the defendant 258 against whom punitive damages are sought acted with actual malice, gross negligence which evidences a willful, wanton or reckless disregard for the safety of others, or committed actual fraud.

(b) Punitive damages shall not be awarded against a defendant for any activity that is subject to regulation by a state or federal governmental entity that was in compliance at the time of the activity with specifically applicable regulations of the state or federal governmental entity, provided that the applicable regulations were promulgated for the purpose of protecting the public against the harm or danger that is the subject of the complaint.

(c) In any action pursuant to Section 11-1-63, punitive damages shall not be awarded against any defendant who was in compliance with specifically applicable regulations of a state or federal governmental entity, provided that the applicable regulations were promulgated for the purpose of protecting the public against the harm or danger that is the subject of the complaint.

(d) In any action in which the claimant seeks an award of punitive damages, the trier of fact shall first determine whether compensatory damages are to be awarded and in what amount, before addressing any issues related to punitive damages.

(e) If, but only if, an award of compensatory damages has been made against a party, the court shall promptly commence an evidentiary hearing before the same trier of fact to determine whether punitive damages may be considered.

(f) The court shall determine whether the issue of punitive damages may be submitted to the trier of fact; and, if so, the trier of fact shall determine whether to award punitive damages and in what amount.

(g) In all cases involving an award of punitive damages, the fact finder, in determining the amount of punitive damages, shall consider, to the extent relevant, the

291 following: * * * the nature and reprehensibility of the 292 defendant's wrongdoing, for example, the impact of the defendant's 293 conduct on the plaintiff, or the relationship of the defendant to 294 the plaintiff; the defendant's awareness of the amount of harm 295 being caused and the defendant's motivation in causing such harm; 296 the duration of the defendant's misconduct and whether the 297 defendant attempted to conceal such misconduct; and any other 298 circumstances shown by the evidence that bear on determining a 299 proper amount of punitive damages. The trier of fact shall be 300 instructed that the primary purpose of punitive damages is to 301 punish the wrongdoer and deter similar misconduct in the future by 302 the defendant and others while the purpose of compensatory damages 303 is to make the plaintiff whole.

304 (h) (i) Before entering judgment for an award of 305 punitive damages the trial court shall ascertain that the award is 306 reasonable in its amount and rationally related to the purpose to 307 punish what occurred giving rise to the award and to deter its 308 repetition by the defendant and others.

309 (ii) In determining whether the award is 310 excessive, the court shall take into consideration the following 311 factors:

312 1. Whether there is a reasonable relationship 313 between the punitive damage award and the harm likely to result 314 from the defendant's conduct as well as the harm that actually 315 occurred;

316 2. The degree of reprehensibility of the 317 defendant's conduct, the duration of that conduct, the defendant's 318 awareness, any concealment, and the existence and frequency of 319 similar past conduct;

320 3. In mitigation, the financial condition and 321 net worth of the defendant; and 322 4. In mitigation, the imposition of criminal 323 sanctions on the defendant for its conduct and the existence of 324 other civil awards against the defendant for the same conduct.

325 (2) The seller of a product other than the manufacturer 326 shall not be liable for punitive damages unless the seller 327 exercised substantial control over that aspect of the design, 328 testing, manufacture, packaging or labeling of the product that 329 caused the harm for which recovery of damages is sought; the 330 seller altered or modified the product, and the alteration or 331 modification was a substantial factor in causing the harm for 332 which recovery of damages is sought; the seller had actual 333 knowledge of the defective condition of the product at the time he 334 supplied same * * *.

335 (3) (a) In any civil action where an entitlement to 336 punitive damages shall have been established under applicable 337 laws, no award of punitive damages shall exceed three (3) times 338 the compensatory damages awarded to the plaintiff; however, in no 339 event shall an award of punitive damages awarded against any 340 defendant in any civil action exceed the following:

341 (i) Ten Million Dollars ($10,000,000.00) for a 342 defendant with a net worth of more than One Billion Dollars 343 ($1,000,000,000.00);

344 (ii) Seven Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars 345 ($7,500,000.00) for a defendant with a net worth of more than 346 Seven Hundred Fifty Million Dollars ($750,000,000.00) but not more 347 than One Billion Dollars ($1,000,000,000.00);

348 (iii) Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000.00) for a 349 defendant with a net worth of more than Five Hundred Million 350 Dollars ($500,000,000.00) but not more than Seven Hundred Fifty 351 Million Dollars ($750,000,000.00);

352 (iv) Three Million Seven Hundred Fifty Thousand 353 Dollars ($3,750,000.00) for a defendant with a net worth of more than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00) but not more than Five Hundred Million Dollars ($500,000,000.00);

(v) Two Million Five Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,500,000.00) for a defendant with a net worth of more than Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00) but not more than One Hundred Million Dollars ($100,000,000.00); or

(vi) Two percent (2%) of the defendant's net worth for a defendant with a net worth of Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000.00) or less.

(b) For the purposes of determining the defendant's net worth in paragraph (a), the amount of the net worth shall be determined in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles.

(c) The limitation on the amount of punitive damages imposed by this subsection (3) shall not be disclosed to the trier of fact, but shall be applied by the court to any punitive damages verdict.

(d) The limitation on the amount of punitive damages imposed by this subsection (3) shall not apply to actions brought for damages or an injury resulting from an act or failure to act by the defendant:

(i) If the defendant was convicted of a felony under the laws of this state or under federal law which caused the damages or injury; or

(ii) While the defendant was under the influence of alcohol or under the influence of drugs other than lawfully prescribed drugs administered in accordance with a prescription.

(e) An employer or principal shall not be held liable for punitive damages under a theory of vicarious liability.

(f) If the jury awards a plaintiff punitive damages, the plaintiff also shall be entitled to reasonable attorneys' fees to be awarded by the court.

(4) Nothing in this section shall be construed as creating a right to an award of punitive damages or to limit the duty of the court, or the appellate courts, to scrutinize all punitive damage awards, ensure that all punitive damage awards comply with applicable procedural, evidentiary and constitutional requirements, and to order remittitur where appropriate.

SECTION 6. Section 85-5-7, Mississippi Code of 1972, is amended as follows:

85-5-7. (1) As used in this section "fault" means an act or omission of a person which is a proximate cause of injury or death to another person or persons, damages to property, tangible or intangible, or economic injury, including, but not limited to, negligence, malpractice, strict liability, absolute liability or failure to warn. "Fault" shall not include any tort which results from an act or omission committed with a specific wrongful intent.

* * *

(2) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (4) of this section, in any civil action based on fault, the liability for damages caused by two (2) or more persons shall be several only, and not joint and several and a joint tort-feasor shall be liable only for the amount of damages allocated to him in direct proportion to his percentage of fault. In assessing percentages of fault an employer and the employer's employee or a principal and the principal's agent shall be considered as one (1) defendant when the liability of such employer or principal has been caused by the wrongful or negligent act or omission of the employee or agent.

* * *

(3) Nothing in this section shall eliminate or diminish any defenses or immunities which currently exist, except as expressly noted herein.

418 (4) Joint and several liability shall be imposed on all who 419 consciously and deliberately pursue a common plan or design to 420 commit a tortious act, or actively take part in it. Any person 421 held jointly and severally liable under this section shall have a 422 right of contribution from his fellow defendants acting in 423 concert.

424 (5) In actions involving joint tort-feasors, the trier of 425 fact shall determine the percentage of fault for each party 426 alleged to be at fault without regard to whether the joint 427 tort-feasor is immune from damages. Fault allocated under this 428 subsection to an immune tort-feasor or a tort-feasor whose 429 liability is limited by law shall not be reallocated to any other 430 tort-feasor.

431 * * *

432 (6) Nothing in this section shall be construed to create a 433 cause of action. Nothing in this section shall be construed, in 434 any way, to alter the immunity of any person.

435 SECTION 7. Sections 1, 2 and 6 of this act shall take effect 436 and be in force from and after its passage and shall apply to all 437 causes of action not yet reduced to judgment on that date; 438 Sections 3, 4 and 5 of this act shall take effect and be in force 439 from and after May 15, 2004, and shall apply to all causes of 440 action filed on or after that date.
