1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION REMEMBERING THE GALLANT SERVICE AND 2 COMMENDING THE LIFE OF PRIVATE FIRST CLASS BRYAN BARRON OF 3 GULFPORT, MISSISSIPPI, WHO WAS A COMBAT CASUALTY IN IRAQ ON 4 MONDAY, MAY 23, 2005, AND EXPRESSING THE SYMPATHY OF THE 5 LEGISLATURE.

6 WHEREAS, Private First Class Bryan Barron, 26, of Gulfport,
7 Mississippi was killed on Monday, May 23, 2005, when a bomb
8 exploded near his Humvee in Haswa, 30 miles south of Baghdad,
9 Iraq, one of four Mississippi members of the 155th Brigade Combat 10 Team; and

11 WHEREAS, carried by a military honor guard, he came home to 12 his community and family, and was buried Wednesday, June 1, 2005,
13 at Biloxi National Cemetery in Biloxi, Mississippi, with full 14 military honors. A memorial service was also held on Thursday,
15 June 2, 2005, at the New Covenant United Methodist Church on Terry 16 Road in Byram, Mississippi; and

17 WHEREAS, the 155th Infantry Brigade Combat Team includes 18 3,500 soldiers from Mississippi and others from Vermont and 19 Arkansas. The 155th, which is attached to the II Marine
20 Expeditionary Force, operates in the Karbala, Najaf and Babil
21 provinces of Iraq. The soldiers trained at Camp Shelby before
22 being deployed to Iraq in January 2004. The deaths of these four 23 brave guardsmen brings the total in the 155th Brigade to at least 24 10 in 2005. Since military operations in Afghanistan and Iraq
25 began, 32 soldiers with ties to Mississippi have died. The 26 Mississippi National Guard has sustained the fourth-highest number 27 of casualties of any state; and

28           WHEREAS, Private Barron was the father of two young children 29 who would have celebrated his 27th birthday on June 9, 2005. He 30 joined the Army National Guard in December 2003. His wife,
31 Amanda, described her husband as a compassionate, outgoing person
32 who didn't know a stranger, and who loved his children, 8-year-old
33 Hayley West and 11-month-old Jaden. He was expected home in three 34 weeks for the baby's first birthday; and

35           WHEREAS, during his funeral, Private Barron was awarded the 36 Bronze Star, the Mississippi Medal of Valor and the Purple Heart
37 posthumously by Major General Harold Cross, Adjutant General of 38 Mississippi; and

39           WHEREAS, his family received an outpouring of grief and 40 support from across the state, demonstrating the community's 41 acknowledgment of the sacrifice made by the Mississippi National 42 Guard; and

43           WHEREAS, he is survived by his wife, Amanda Campbell Barron;
44 two daughters, Jaden Barron of Byram, Mississippi, and Hayley West
45 of Vancleave, Mississippi; mother, Cindy Barron of Yakima,
46 Washington; three brothers, Terry L. Barron of Pineville,
47 Louisiana, Terry Barron of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, and Cory Barron

52 Natchitoches, Louisiana, and Mabelyn and Cosimo Liberto of 53 Gulfport, Mississippi; and numerous other relatives and close 54 friends; and

55           WHEREAS, to a country, a fallen soldier means a national 56 loss; to a community, a fallen soldier means a true hero; to a
57 parent, a fallen soldier means a son who won't be coming home.
58 Mississippians understand the costs of conflict, because we have 59 paid them in the past, and it is with great pride and humility
60 that we recognize the heroic action of this great American and

61 Mississippian, who was the guardian of civilization as we know it 62 today:

63         NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE STATE OF
