SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 525

1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION COMMENDING AND CONGRATULATING THE 2 2016 CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL "ARROWS" FOOTBALL TEAM LED BY OUTSTANDING 3 SENIOR CAM AKERS AND HEAD COACH JUDD BOSWELL FOR WINNING THEIR 4 FIRST MHSAA CLASS 6A STATE CHAMPIONSHIP.

5 WHEREAS, these are plays Mississippians will recount years
6 from now when relaying the Mississippi High School Activities
7 Association (MHSAA) Class 6A Championship Game that was played
8 December 2, 2016, at Davis Wade Stadium at Mississippi State.
9 They were the plays that cemented Cam Akers' status as one of the 10 Magnolia State's all-time greatest high school players. They were 11 the plays that lifted Clinton to a 49-35 win against Pearl and its 12 first State Championship; and

13 WHEREAS, Pearl (11-4) entered the game red hot, wining nine 14 straight and not allowing more than 14 points in a game since
15 September 30. Cam Akers ended his remarkable high school career
16 with a storybook finish that included the 6A Title, 217 rushing 17 yards and two throwing touchdowns. "This was," Akers said, "the 18 perfect ending"; and

19           WHEREAS, in the middle of it all was Akers, but there were 20 also others. Linebacker Jacobi Hearn had a 14-yard run on a fake 21 punt to extend a drive; the offensive line had one of its better
22 blocking games of the season; and the Arrows' defense played 23 inspired throughout and constantly created pressure. Hearn also 24 had 10 tackles while defensive back Kam White had six tackles and 25 an interception. "We wanted this more than anything," Akers said.
26 "We wanted this for the City of Clinton; and

27           WHEREAS, "The feeling is unbelievable," Clinton Coach Judd 28 Boswell said. "We are 6A State Champions. We have been 29 battle-tested and these kids never quit. Cam is unbelievable in 30 every way"; and

31           WHEREAS, the Clinton High School "Arrows" Football Team
32 Roster is: Cam Lewis, Reginald Landing, Cam Akers, Austin
33 Perkins, Kam'ron White, Taishun Davis, Darius Maberry, Rashaad
