15 guilty of a felonious trespass.

16 (b) Any person who looks through a window, hole or

25 knowledge of every person present, for the lewd, licentious and 26 indecent purpose of spying upon the occupant or occupants thereof,
27 shall be guilty of a felony.

28 (2) (a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this 29 subsection, a person who * * * is over the age of * * * eighteen 30 (18) at the time of the offense * * * and is convicted of a

32 the custody of the Department of Corrections not more than five 33 (5) years.

34 (b) When one or more occupants spied upon is a child

38 the custody of the Department of Corrections not more than ten
39 (10) years.

40 SECTION 2. (1) This section shall be known and may be cited
41 as "Buddy's Law."

42 (2) When a child is adjudicated delinquent of an offense
43 involving the intentional torturing, mutilating, maiming, burning, 44 starving to death, crushing, disfiguring, drowning, suffocating or 45 impaling of a domesticated dog or cat as described in Section

46 97-14-16, the youth court shall order that the child adjudicated 47 delinquent receives a psychiatric evaluation and counseling or 48 treatment for a length of time as prescribed by the youth court.
49 The cost of any evaluation, counseling and treatment shall be paid

51 offender is a ward of the state, upon order of the youth court, up
52 to a maximum amount that is no more than the jurisdictional limit 53 of the sentencing court. The youth court shall hold the 54 offender's parent or guardian in contempt under Section 43-21-509
55 if the parent or guardian willfully does not follow the 56 recommended treatment for the offender.

57 (3) The Legislature does recognize that animal abuse by a 58 child often leads to further criminal activity by the child as he 59 or she ages. This activity is sometimes homicidal; however, it is 60 the Legislature's intent that a mental health evaluation under 61 this section is only required in extreme situations as prescribed
62 in Section 97-14-16. Further, it is the intent of the Legislature
63 that a minor offense of abuse of a cat or dog by a child shall not 64 require a mental health evaluation unless the judge, after a
65 hearing, shall determine if the evaluation is necessary.

66 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from 67 and after July 1, 2022.
