We, therefore, respectfully submit the following report and recommendation:

1. That the House recede from its Amendment No. 1.
2. That the Senate and House adopt the following amendment:

Amend by striking all after the enacting clause and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

9 SECTION 1. Section 97-3-21, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 10 amended as follows:

11 97-3-21. (1) Except as otherwise provided for a juvenile 12 offender in subsection (2) of this section, every person who * * * 13 is:

14 (a) Convicted of first-degree murder shall be sentenced 15 by the court to imprisonment for life in the custody of the 16 Department of Corrections.

17 (* * *b) * * * Convicted of second-degree murder shall 18 be imprisoned for life in the custody of the Department of 19 Corrections if the punishment is so fixed by the jury in its 20 verdict after a separate sentencing proceeding. If the jury fails 21 to agree on fixing the penalty at imprisonment for life, the court

22 shall fix the penalty at not less than twenty (20) nor more than 23 forty (40) years in the custody of the Department of Corrections.

24 (* * *c) * * * Convicted of capital murder shall be 25 sentenced (* * i) to death;( * ii) to imprisonment for life 26 in the State Penitentiary without parole; or ( * iii) to 27 imprisonment for life in the State Penitentiary with eligibility 28 for parole as provided in Section 47-7-3(1) ( * *c)(iii).

29 (2) (a) For the purposes of this section, "juvenile 30 offender" means a person who had not reached the age of eighteen 31 (18) years at the time of the commission of the offense.

32 (b) A juvenile offender who is convicted of 33 first-degree murder after July 1, 2024, may be sentenced to life 34 imprisonment in the custody of the Department of Corrections if 35 the punishment is so fixed by the jury. If the jury fails to fix 36 the penalty at life imprisonment, the court shall fix the penalty 37 at not less than twenty (20) nor more than forty (40) years in the 38 custody of the Department of Corrections.

39 (c) A juvenile offender who is convicted of capital
40 murder after July 1, 2024, may be sentenced to life imprisonment
41 in the custody of the Department of Corrections or life 42 imprisonment without eligibility for parole in the custody of the 43 Department of Corrections if the punishment is so fixed by the 44 jury. If the jury fails to fix the penalty at life imprisonment 45 or life imprisonment without parole, the court shall fix the 46 penalty at not less than twenty-five (25) nor more than fifty (50)

47 years in the custody of the Department of Corrections.

48 (d) For a juvenile offender who was convicted of 49 first-degree murder or capital murder prior to July 1, 2024, and 50 who is entitled to a hearing under this subsection, the judge who 51 presided over the trial, or a judge appointed by the senior 52 circuit judge, if the presiding judge is unavailable, shall fix 53 the penalty.

54 SECTION 2. Section 99-19-101, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 55 amended as follows:

56 99-19-101. (1) Upon conviction or adjudication of guilt of 57 a defendant of capital murder or other capital offense, the court 58 shall conduct a separate sentencing proceeding to determine 59 whether the defendant should be sentenced to death, life 60 imprisonment without eligibility for parole, or life imprisonment;
61 however, a sentence of death cannot be imposed if the defendant 62 was not at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the 63 commission of the offense. The proceeding shall be conducted by 64 the trial judge before the trial jury as soon as practicable. If, 65 through impossibility or inability, the trial jury is unable to 66 reconvene for a hearing on the issue of penalty, having determined 67 the guilt of the accused, the trial judge may summon a jury to 68 determine the issue of the imposition of the penalty. If the 69 trial jury has been waived, or if the defendant pleaded guilty, 70 the sentencing proceeding shall be conducted before a jury

71 impaneled for that purpose or may be conducted before the trial 72 judge sitting without a jury if both the State of Mississippi and 73 the defendant agree thereto in writing. In the proceeding, 74 evidence may be presented as to any matter that the court deems 75 relevant to sentence, and shall include matters relating to any of 76 the aggravating or mitigating circumstances. However, this 77 subsection shall not be construed to authorize the introduction of 78 any evidence secured in violation of the Constitution of the 79 United States or of the State of Mississippi. The state and the 80 defendant and the defendant's counsel shall be permitted to 81 present arguments for or against the sentence of death.

82 (2) After hearing all the evidence, the jury shall 83 deliberate on the following matters:

84 (a) Whether sufficient factors exist as enumerated in 85 subsection (7) of this section;

86 (b) Whether sufficient aggravating circumstances exist
87 as enumerated in subsection (5) of this section;

88 (c) Whether sufficient mitigating circumstances exist
89 as enumerated in subsection (6) of this section, which outweigh 90 the aggravating circumstances found to exist; and 91 (d) Based on these considerations, whether the 92 defendant should be sentenced to life imprisonment, life 93 imprisonment without eligibility for parole, or death.

94 (3) For the jury to impose a sentence of death, it must 95 unanimously find in writing the following:

96 (a) That sufficient factors exist as enumerated in 97 subsection (7) of this section;

98 (b) That sufficient aggravating circumstances exist as 99 enumerated in subsection (5) of this section; * * *

100 (c) That there are insufficient mitigating 101 circumstances, as enumerated in subsection (6), to outweigh the 102 aggravating circumstances * * *; and

103 (d) That the defendant was eighteen (18) years of age 104 or older at the time of the commission of the offense.

105 In each case in which the jury imposes the death sentence, 106 the determination of the jury shall be supported by specific 107 written findings of fact based upon the circumstances in 108 subsections (5) and (6) of this section and upon the records of 109 the trial and the sentencing proceedings. If, after the trial of 110 the penalty phase, the jury does not make the findings requiring 111 the death sentence or life imprisonment without eligibility for 112 parole, or is unable to reach a decision, the court shall impose a 113 sentence of life imprisonment.

114 (4) The judgment of conviction and sentence of death shall 115 be subject to automatic review by the Supreme Court of Mississippi 116 within sixty (60) days after certification by the sentencing court 117 of the entire record, unless the time is extended for an 118 additional period by the Supreme Court for good cause shown. The 119 review by the Supreme Court shall have priority over all other

120 cases and shall be heard in accordance with rules promulgated by 121 the Supreme Court.

122 (5) Aggravating circumstances shall be limited to the 123 following:

124 (a) The capital offense was committed by a person under 125 sentence of imprisonment.

126 (b) The defendant was previously convicted of another 127 capital offense or of a felony involving the use or threat of 128 violence to the person.

129 (c) The defendant knowingly created a great risk of 130 death to many persons.

131 (d) The capital offense was committed while the 132 defendant was engaged, or was an accomplice, in the commission of, 133 or an attempt to commit, or flight after committing or attempting 134 to commit, any robbery, rape, arson, burglary, kidnapping, 135 aircraft piracy, sexual battery, unnatural intercourse with any 136 child under the age of twelve (12), or nonconsensual unnatural 137 intercourse with mankind, or felonious abuse or battery of a child 138 in violation of subsection (2) of Section 97-5-39, or the unlawful 139 use or detonation of a bomb or explosive device.

140 (e) The capital offense was committed for the purpose
141 of avoiding or preventing a lawful arrest or effecting an escape 142 from custody.

143 (f) The capital offense was committed for pecuniary 144 gain.

145 (g) The capital offense was committed to disrupt or 146 hinder the lawful exercise of any governmental function or the 147 enforcement of laws.

148 (h) The capital offense was committed to influence the 149 policy of a governmental entity by intimidation or coercion, or to 150 affect the conduct of a governmental entity by mass destruction or 151 assassination.

152 (i) The capital offense was especially heinous,
153 atrocious or cruel.

154 (j) The capital offense was committed to intimidate or 155 coerce a civilian population.

156 (6) Mitigating circumstances shall be the following:

157 (a) The defendant has no significant history of prior 158 criminal activity.

159 (b) The offense was committed while the defendant was 160 under the influence of extreme mental or emotional disturbance.

161 (c) The victim was a participant in the defendant's 162 conduct or consented to the act.

163 (d) The defendant was an accomplice in the capital 164 offense committed by another person and his participation was 165 relatively minor.

166 (e) The defendant acted under extreme duress or under 167 the substantial domination of another person.

168 (f) The capacity of the defendant to appreciate the 169 criminality of his conduct or to conform his conduct to the 170 requirements of law was substantially impaired.

171 (g) The age of the defendant at the time of the crime.

172 (7) In order to return and impose a sentence of death the 173 jury must make a written finding of one or more of the following:

174 (a) The defendant actually killed;

175 (b) The defendant attempted to kill;

176 (c) The defendant intended that a killing take place;

177 (d) The defendant contemplated that lethal force would 178 be employed.

179 (8) For the purposes of this section, to "intimidate" or 180 "coerce" do not include peaceful picketing, boycotts or other 181 nonviolent action.

182 (9) This section shall not apply to a juvenile offender who 183 was not at least eighteen (18) years of age at the time of the 184 commission of the offense. A juvenile offender convicted of 185 capital murder shall be sentenced pursuant to Section 97-3-21(2).

186 SECTION 3. The amendments made to Section 97-3-21 by this 187 act shall operate prospectively from July 1, 2024.

188 SECTION 4. Section 25-31-21, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 189 amended as follows:

190 25-31-21. (1) If, at the time of impaneling the grand jury 191 in any circuit court, the district attorney be absent or unable to 192 perform his duties or, if after impaneling of the grand jury, the 193 district attorney be absent or unable to perform his duties or be 194 disqualified, the court shall forthwith appoint some attorney at 195 law to act for the state in the place of the district attorney 196 during his absence or inability or disqualification, and the 197 person appointed shall have the power to discharge all the duties

198 of the office during the absence or inability or disqualification 199 of the district attorney, and shall receive a reasonable 200 compensation for his services, to be allowed by the court and 201 certified to the auditor, who shall issue his warrant therefor.
202 Such allowance shall be deducted from the salary of the district 203 attorney, and shall not exceed the amount of the salary of the 204 district attorney for the number of days allotted by law for the 205 term of the court at which such appointees shall act.

206 (2) The provisions of this section shall not be construed to 207 include and shall not be applicable if a district attorney recuses 208 himself from a case or has a conflict of interest with a case, 209 without regard to whether the case has been presented to the grand 210 jury before such recusal or whether the case had not yet been 211 presented to the grand jury.

212 (3) When the appointed attorney is required to travel beyond 213 the limits of the judicial district in which he or she is normally 214 employed, all reasonable expenses incurred in prosecuting the case 215 shall be borne by the judicial district of the district attorney 216 being assisted in the discharge of his or her duties, if not 217 already compensated by the state.

218 SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from 219 and after July 1, 2024.
