88 SECTION 23. Section 65-33-31, Mississippi Code of 1972, is
89 amended as follows:

90 65-33-31. Whenever it shall become necessary to construct,
91 widen, or protect any highway under the provisions hereof,
92 the * * * board of supervisors shall make publication for thirty 93 (30) days in some newspaper published in the county wherein such 94 improvements are made, setting forth the commencement and 95 termination, with a general outline of the nature and extent
96 thereof. When any owner of land or other person shall claim
97 compensation for land taken for such purpose, or for damage
98 sustained by the construction, widening, improvement, or

99 protection of such road or highway, he or she shall petition the 100 board of supervisors in writing within thirty (30) days after the 101 expiration of the time provided for such publication, setting
102 forth the nature and character of the damages claimed. Thereupon 103 the board shall, on five (5) days' notice to petitioner, go on the 104 premises and assess the damages sustained by him or her. The 105 finding of the board shall be in writing, signed by the members
106 agreeing to it, and must be entered on the minutes at the next 107 meeting; but if the damages sustained and claimed be less than the 108 cost of assessing, the board may allow the same without inquiry.

109 SECTION 24. Section 65-33-33, Mississippi Code of 1972, is 110 amended as follows:

111 65-33-33. All proceedings of the board of supervisors * * *
112 in widening, improving, or protecting any such highway and 113 assessing damages therefor may be reviewed by the circuit court in 114 respect to any matter of law arising on the face of the 115 proceeding. On the question of damages, the case may be tried 116 anew and the damages may be assessed by a jury if the owner of the 117 land so desires. The board of supervisors shall grant appeals for 118 that purpose when prayed for, on appellant giving bond for cost in 119 such penalty as the board may require, not exceeding Two Hundred 120 Dollars ($200.00), payable to the county.

121 SECTION 25. This act shall take effect and be in force from 122 and after July 1, 2026.
